'Suicide Workshop' Is Planned by College

The growing problem of suicides and how to prevent them will be the subject of a "Suicide Crisis" workshop to be held on the Diablo Valley College campus on Saturday, December 1, under auspices of the Contra Costa Mental Health Association.

The workshop is primarily directed toward members of the clergy, public health and school nurses, educators, doctors, firemen, law enforcement and probation officers, social welfare workers and attorneys.

A $2 registration fee will cover both the workshop sessions and luncheon.

Among initial planners of the workshop were Police Chiefs Charles Brown of Richmond, George Yool of Kensington, E. A. Carlson of Antioch, Sal P. Jimno of Pittsburg and H. E. Hobart of the sheriff's office.

Other planners included A. S. Gilmarin and Mrs. Estelle DVC campus.

Girande, president and executive director, respectively of the mental health association; Dr. Yoshiye Togasaki and Mrs. Charlotte Perry of the county health department; Mrs. Maxine Johnson, county hospital; Rev. E. J. Troutner of the Walnut Creek Methodist Church; Dr. Donald K. Fisher and Frederick Nesbitt, representing the Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Association; and two DVC administrators, Dr. J. Philip Dalby, dean of instruction, and Charles E. Grant, coordinator of police training.

Sponsoring organizations are the Contra Costa Council of Churches, county health department, Contra Costa Community Mental Health Services, schools department, and the college. The mental health association is a United Crusade agency.

Reservations for the workshop may be made with Grant at the DVC campus.

8 Candidates Run for Board Of Orinda Assn.

Ballots will be mailed to members of the Orinda Association the first of the week after Thanksgiving.

Eight men are candidates. Two are running in each of the four districts in which there will occur vacancies after the first of the year.

Orinda is divided into nine districts, with a representative of each on the board. Board members serve two years, with five expiring one year, and four on the alternate year.

Next week, the Orinda Sun will run a photograph of each candidate and a statement as to his views on issues now facing Orinda.

Fire Commissioner Meeting Postponed

Because of Thanksgiving, the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners of the Orinda County Fire Protection District will be the following Thursday, November 29.

A Most Thankful Family

THE PHILIP BUSH family face the camera in colorful imported ski sweaters and tonight Margie and Phil will face the music to dance in their best duds at the Allegro Ball at the Claremont Hotel tonight, a benefit for the Oakland Symphony on whose association executive committee Bush serves as director.

San Francisco-born and bred, Bush grew up in an industrious household under the guidance of a "remarkable mother" and father who was a member of the San Francisco School Board.

The emphasis on education in his youth instilled a lifetime interest in the processes and progress of same for the man who now is a school board trustee for the Orinda Union School District. Manager of the nuclear projects department for Kaiser Engineers, Bush is a member of the American Nuclear Society and the Engineers. He received his degrees at Stanford and M.I.T., the latter which he still affiliates with as a member of the Educational Advisory Council.

AN ACCOMPLISHED pianist (she was on the concert circuit prior to her marriage), Margie Bush, hostess and homemaker, is enjoying her second Orinda home at 38 Oakwood Road where she has graciously opened the door to many community activities. She modestly infers that she has turned over the ivory keyboard in the spacious house to her two youngsters who are tutored in their scales and chords by a local teacher.

Besides being piano students, Ellen, 8, and Philip, 13, are champ swimmers at Meadow Pool and Philip has been a member of the famed Aquabears for the past three years.

A willing volunteer for Red Cross and Cancer drives (her husband is a past president of the Alameda County Cancer Society), Margie is also active in school activities at Inland Valley, a past president of the Orinda A.A.U.W. and helps on the hospitality committee for The Friends of the Orinda Library.

With all that and decorating as a hobby, the solarium boasts a stunning array of indoor greenery planted by this ardent green-thumber, she also finds time to join her neighbor Barbara Beday in the weekly bird-watching group that finds some of our best matrons buttoned-up and out early with their binoculars.

THE FAMILY has enjoyed many travels. Marge and Phil do the European itinerary twice while all have holidayed together in Hawaii and Mexico. This winter they'll head for Dodge Ridge and Sun Valley to ski. Hidden from the sight (he's under the table) is their family dog "Duke" who has a passion for chasing skunks... but never catching any.

Let's hope he doesn't bring home his first one tonight for the Bushes are hosting a gala dinner party before the Symphony Ball!

Business Boundary of Orinda Held as Rezone Is Withdrawn

Wells Fargo Branch to Be Enlarged

Enlargement of the Wells Fargo Bank, Orinda Crossroads, began yesterday.

The wall will be knocked out between 18 and 20 Moraga Way so that the bank's officers will be moved to a platform where the Orinda Camera Shop was located.

Work began on the Camera Shop's portion.

"TO AVOID any inconvenience to our customers during the Christmas holidays, knocking a hole in the wall between the camera shop and bank will be delayed until the first of the year," said Merle Brown, manager.

New tellers' counters will be installed with 11 windows instead of the present five. "It will be of latest design," said Brown.

Lee Center Construction Company of Orinda is doing the work. Target date to complete the work to the point where the hole may be knocked out of is 30 days. Another 30 days will be required to complete the job.

The Orinda branch opened February 10, 1947.

"OUR BANK has grown so steadily through the years that the additional space is needed to give our customers the service we want to give them," said Brown.

The Camera Shop moved to 10 Moraga Way, in the building formerly occupied by John Loop Realtor, who moved to Lafayette.

STAR OF "PORTRAIT" to be shown Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. over Channel 4 is this three-year-old boy and his mother. He is a therapy patient at Children's Hospital of the East Bay after having been discharged. Children from Orinda Nursery School will also be shown visiting the hospital. Cameraman for "Portrait" was Al Ikhn, 1 North Lane, Orinda. Producer is Larry Russell of Walnut Creek.

Moraga's Storm Damage Is Topic at Community Club

Flood control and storm damage in Moraga were discussed at a meeting of the Moraga Valley Community Club Monday night.

About 30 residents met with Carl Rich, chief engineer, County Flood Control District, and Al Stanley, grading engineer, County Building Department.

Although the group of Moragans was small, they were well-prepared—coming with photographs, correspondence and statistics.

PRESIDENT of MVCC Charles Wright called the meeting to order at 8 p.m. at Donald L. Rheem School. Wright presided over the questions and answers period which took up the majority of time.

Moraga area received the greatest amount of rain in the county during the storm—over 20 inches in 60 hours.

Rich stated that the County Public Works Department had been doing work in the area to control drainage in the months prior to October 12.

However, he described the "100 year rain" as a freak of nature and there wasn't much that the county could have done to alleviate the drainage problem in the area.

THE FLOODING was worse because there had been no vegetation on the hills, Rich stated. Also the fact that road work and culvert work was in process worsened the situation.

THE PUBLIC WORKS approved October 23 a work order to install a 60-inch corrugated metal pipe liner in a 72-inch corrugated metal pipe on Moraga Road, north of the junction with St. Mary's Road. The county is proceeding with the work, estimated at $3000.

Among the specific complaints aired at the meeting were by homeowners on Donald Drive and Harold Drive and an apartment owner on Rheem Boulevard. All complained of inadequate drainage facilities.

ART FLEUTI, proprietor of the Moraga Barn, spoke at length as to the flooding of the Barn. He alleged that this was due to roadwork by Utah Construction Company.

Utah is relocating several roads on St. Mary's Road from Moraga Way to 1000 feet east of the intersection with Moraga Way.

When the $136,000 job is completed, probably next spring, the right-of-way to these roads will be deeded to the county, ac-

Planning Staff Balks at Site for More Retail Biz

An application to rezone to retail business 5.7 acres at Davis Road and Bates Boulevard, Orinda, was withdrawn before the scheduled public hearing. It was sixth on the County Planning Commission's agenda Tuesday night.

Glen H. Whalen was listed as the applicant by the county. William Wightman Norton is the owner.

WHALEN'S request was to rezone from transition residential agricultural (R-A) to retail business (R-B) the 5.7 acre parcel at the southeast corner of Davis Road and Bates Boulevard.

Judge Sam Hall, of the Martinez law firm of Hoey, Hoey and Hall, called the county early this week. On behalf of his client, he asked that the application be withdrawn.

According to a member of the county planning staff, the withdrawal may have been based on the fact that the staff recommended denial of the rezoning. The staff felt that the parcel would be better adapted to certain uses possible by obtaining a land use permit under the present zoning. This would include professional offices.

THE ORINDA Association Board voted October 22 to oppose this or any other request to enlarge the retail business zoning of Orinda.

Their planning committee, listing Boies and Soule, Orinda realtors, as the applicants, recommended that the association oppose any "jumping out of the commercial district."

The board voted to uphold the committee's findings. One of the association's "basic concepts is to hold the business district to its present boundaries," said a board member.

Property owners on Davis and Bates also opposed the rezoning.

Gas Station 10 Hearing Is Set For December 4

December 4 is the new date set by the County Board of Adjustment to hear Norcal Company's request for a 10th gas station in Orinda.

The board set the date Tuesday night at a continued public hearing, which was postponed. The Enco gas station is proposed for Orinda Way, between The Plaza and Lucky's in the village.

Norcal, land investment company, is seeking a land use permit for the location, which has 197-foot frontage on Orinda Way and is across the street from Orinda School.

The possibility of locating Orinda's main fire station on the site is also being considered, according to county officials.

Classified Ad Deadline Reset For Holiday

Because of the Thanksgiving Holiday, November 22, the deadline for classified ads in The Sun for that week has been moved up to Saturday, November 17, 5 p.m.

Classified ads may be placed all day November 17 by calling 934-5000 or 284-4444.

"The change in deadline applies only to The Sun Shopping News for October 21 and The Sun Newspapers for October 23," according to Charles Fahrney, classified advertising manager.

Ads called in Monday, October 19, before 10 a.m. will be placed in the "Too Late to Classify" column, the manager added.

Incorporation Committee Forms For Lafayette

A "Citizens Committee" on incorporation for Lafayette, enlarged previous proposed boundaries of a downtown "city" at a meeting Tuesday night.

The Downtown Property Owners Association, originators of the idea for limited incorporation, asked 16 other persons to sit on the committee with two of their own members.

Although only 12 persons showed up for the meeting, there were three representatives of the Lafayette Improvement Association who came prepared to back the incorporation completely.

TENTATIVE PLANS call for neighborhood meetings to find out how residents now included within the boundaries of the "city" feel about being included.

Art Robson, legal advisor for the property owners, said these meetings would take 60 days and after that the boundaries would be set up.

Areas that do not want it will be eliminated from the final limits of the "city," he said.

There now are approximately 1000 voters and 2500 residents, it was estimated.

To Hold Meeting

Mothers Club of Santa Maria School, Orinda, will highlight its November meeting with an address by Dr. James Turre, local obstetrician and gynecologist.

The meeting will be November 27 at 1:30 p.m. in the parish hall, Santa Maria Way, Orinda.

Unification 'Race' Worries Trustees

Acalanes Union School District trustees this week reiterated their preference for a single unified district formed by the elementary districts within the Acalanes Union High School District.

Trustees restated their interest in single district unification in response to a report by Mrs. Alla Knudsen of the Acalanes board on recent activities studying possible division of the Acalanes into two unified school systems—Walnut Creek-Lafayette and Orinda-Moraga.

High school trustees expressed concern over a reported resolution by the Walnut Creek-Lafayette group that unification for that area move ahead "without regard to action taken by the Orinda-Moraga area."

High school board members said this would leave a "union high school district of two high schools—Campolindo and Miramonte, fed elementary students by the Orinda-Moraga and Acalanes elementary districts."

Acalanes District trustees expressed concern that the "excellent high school educational standards developed over the past 23 years for high schools of this area will be in jeopardy."

Trustees also directed continued exploration of a sixth possible high school site in the north Orinda area, to keep up with enrollment projections estimated for several years from now.

They discussed the district's present civil defense plan for students (three-fourths are signed up to be evacuated in event of an alert; one-fourth would be sent home on foot—each according to previously approved parent directive).

They postponed any decision to change the present plan pending further discussion.

They approved attendance of Campolindo foreign language teacher Hugh Molino at a Washington, D.C., 2-day December conference on foreign language instruction techniques.

Mats VS Highlanders

For Championship Try

By KAREN STAFFORD and JACKIE EDENHOLM

Will Miramonte win the league championship? That is the big question to be determined by our game with Piedmont tonight. If we do, it will be the first time in the history of Miramonte and, quite an achievement for our varsity football team!

It goes without saying that the support of the student body as a whole is one of the most important factors in any school game. Without that support and spirit there is nothing—a school has nothing without it—you can make it what you want—it's up to you.

Roxie Smith was shanghaied by nine bright-eyed friends for her birthday, Friday, at 6:20 a.m.

Opening the door, after a slight struggle, the girls entered the hall to find Roxie standing by her bedroom door—gazing in surprise—she thought it was a burglar. The girls then went to breakfast at the Kopper Kettle, where they enjoyed breakfast and—a rest—after getting up so early!

Miramonte had its own rooting section at the Del Valle-Las Lomas game last Friday night consisting of most of our players and other boys. It's too bad that we don't have more like them in our own rooting section—their Miramonte spellout was especially loud and effective, but for some reason, didn't go over too well with all those Las Lomas fans sitting around them!

Kathy Knudsen took advantage of the three-day weekend by taking a trip to the Los Angeles area with her parents to look at colleges. She stayed with Joan Eberhart, a former Miramonte graduate, now attending U.C.L.A. and reportedly had a very good time at the U.C.L.A. Air Force game and a fraternity party afterward.

The DeMolay dance Saturday night was "very good," according to Bill Easterly, who was chairman. Everyone seemed to especially like the great music by the Dynamics with their electric guitars and drums. Some of those couples "dancing the night away" were Brian Prunn, Master Councilor of DeMolays, and Diane Angel, Rich Outman and Cherie Jackson, Ray Aldrich and Joan Ehle, Bill Easterly and Cheri Vota, Craig Hidy and Patty Anderson, Tom Doolittle and Katie Jones, and Barry Tieman and Sue Smith.

Five senior boys headed for the drags at Half Moon Bay on Sunday—Kent Miller, Bob Williams, Phil Grant, Bruce Nickerson, and Dean Hilger—Apparently it took quite a while for the boys to get back—just to add some excitement someone smashed Bruce's chocolate candy bar all over his face—well, you didn't expect him NOT to get you back in your face, did you, Phil??

Katy Jones flew down to Santa Barbara Friday to spend the weekend with Kathy Calhoun where she had a wonderful time touring the campus.

After our Friday afternoon victory there was a dance at St. Stephen's Church. Those there included Nancy Casey and Bob Burkes, Carol Mamonson and Bob Williams, Barbie Brush and Clint DeWitt, Sis Boyle and John Ronald, Nancy Miller, Jill Macaferri and Gary Baker.

If you didn't see them at the dance Friday night it was because Barry Yaeger and Alison Horne, Claudia Powell and Greg Holme, Ginger Ronald and Pete Kimball, Diane Moss and Jay Grilli, Chris Walstrom and Bill Cooper, Candy Jacobs and Doug Dermitt, Tony Aires and Dick Blair, Emmy Grah and Dan Degrassi, Chris Romer and Bob Lyman were at a party given by Barry Yaeger. Jay Grilli's main activity for the evening was throwing popcorn at the girls. What was the purpose of that, Jay?

Saturday night was the night of "Oriental Fantasy," the dance sponsored by the Junior Branches of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay. Before the dance Fran Obrecht had a dinner for some of her friends. Fran and Dave Lackey, Kay Dunbar and Mike Shepard, Terry Palmquist and Bob Martin and Carol Meyer and Bill Reid all had a wonderful time at the dinner and dance. Others at the dance were Lana Dressler and Paul Scholberg, Mary Hansen and Mike Bartlett, Nancy Allen and Steve Perry, Chris Campbell and Larry Lahman, Paul Locklin and Mimi Loomis and Carol Ferguson and Doug Knudsen. Everyone said the dance, and especially the music, was terrific!

The long weekend was also an ideal time for a surprise party given for Petet Boyle by Karen Nattress. Everything was fine until Pete decided to leave early. The saying now goes, "The early birthday bird receiveth one-half of a surprise party!" Everything turned out okay, however, thanks to Gayle Baker's utterance of "SURPRISE"! Happy birthday, Pete!

Saturday night those who hadn't been spooked enough Halloween night went to see the movie "What Every Happened to Baby Jane?" Clutching the arm rests in the theatre were Barb Bagley and Dave Hughes, Beth Shepherd and Jim Lewis, and Dave Tarpley and his date. BOO!

One more thing . . . SEE YOU AT THE GAME TONIGHT!!

Hats Off To...

Mrs. David Coleman, Real Friend to Music Lovers

BRING ON THE VIOLINS and Strike Up the Band for Mrs. David (Betty) Coleman who was instrumental in organizing the orchestra at Miramonte High School as well as the supporting group of parents and music lovers who, for the first 18 months, were called Friends of the Miramonte Orchestra.

"But now," says Betty in breathless excitement, "we are searching a new name to better suit our purpose for the group now includes the entire music department which includes the band, orchestra, choral groups and A Cappella choir."

"The purpose of our organization is to promote good music, to aid the music department with further monies for their musical needs, to give recognition and scholarships to those deserving music students and to augment the music curriculum with field trips and outside music activities."

BETTY BECAME a natural for the formation of this group when daughter Terry, now a senior, started her freshman year unable to take bow in hand because of the lack of an orchestra. Betty now is first violinist with the orchestra, that along with the rest of the Miramonte Music Department is planning an auspicious holiday program to include the famous Hallelujah Chorus under the direction of Mr. Anderson.

The wife of Orinda architect David Coleman (both are prominent in Bay Area music circles), Betty is a gourmet cook and fell also naturally into the job as first-year menu chairman for the Terrace Tea Room when she was an active Tanager member some years ago. She is a ceramic enthusiast attending weekly classes, is currently playing the Princess in the East Bay Children's Theater production of "Aladdin," and hovers over Holly, another daughter, age 10, who blows sweet notes on an oboe. "Best of all," smiles the vivacious mother, "the Miramonte Orchestra will be there ready and waiting for Holly."

Fire Safety Award Goes To Cub Scout Pack 225

Fire Marshal William Koch presented the fire safety award to Cub Scout Pack 225 at Glorietta School, recently.

To earn the community service project award, each boy checked his own home and that of a neighbor for possible fire hazards. He turned in his report to the den mother.

THE BOYS are now working on Christmas tree ornaments for their annual Christmas party, December 7. Each boy will bring a gift to be given to a needy child.

Service stars—Steve Baker, Bruce Cook, Bob Juscik and Mark Shaeffer. Round-up bars—Rick Hunter and Roland Engle.

Touch & Go

Go, Go, Go . . . It's that time again when the season is launched prematurely w/an avalanche of Christmas shopping benefits & everybody takes a chair at the Christmas card counter only to wade through a confusing assortment of simply too many to choose from.

Like the lady just returned from an afternoon benefit of goody-buying said: I'm up to HERE with styrofoam! . . . & from all indications, the public has had too much frosting on the cake & this year returns, hooray, to the more simple natural things that belong to the season.

ALL AROUND THE TOWN: Shades of Old New York at Phair's where the meat dept. is featuring Kosher Corned Beef smothered in garlic & herbs . . . & the bakery boasts a bagel pole holding chocolate bagels at ten apiece . . . Here, Norma Betz looking through the Christmas card books & Ann Ward, popular Valley Art Center member, browsing the gift shop for Wedding gift ideas.

Silver & gold Christmas charms an eyeatcher at George Tobias' Jewelry Store . . . The Two Martys' (D & T), holding court at their new Village Boutique of fancy fashions, have holiday plans for a "King's Court" night for Men Only while over in Lafayette, Jim Sherry men's store will do a reverse & feature "Ladies' Night" on the town . . . or the charge acct. No matter how you look at it, Poppa pays the bill . . . A grey flannel shirt attractive on Sis Sibbetts expecting #5.

Industrious young Ricky Jensen on his lawn-mowing rounds in the Camino Sobrante sector . . . & John Heller & Gary Hanks getting in a round of golf at Golden Gate Fields on last Monday's holiday . . . The Harold Henders down to San Jose State for Parents' Day, daughter Sharon, a SJState coed, recently elected 2nd Nat'l Chrmn. of the Newman Province Club.

THE PLAZA sign w/a premature pronouncement "47 Shopping Days Until Christmas" sounds like the scheme of efficient Gertrude Ogden who believes in brevity. Most popular story about her preciseness is the time she told Lid Miles she'd let her know how many would be attdg. a church group dinner. The phone at the Miles' rang & Lid lifted the instrument to hear a business-like "Twenty-Seven," click. Enough said & would we were all as efficient as the Wizard of Ogden's . . .

Shades of our old Suburbia In Suburbia Show but wasn't Joe Navone in good voice riding to the 49-er's game on a big bus & recalling his first solo stint on stage. To the tune of Gilbert & Sullivan's "Little Buttercup," here, try it yourself for a few lines . . . "My name's Joe Navone & that's no baloney, I call at your house every week. I know how you're living, the parties you're giving. You can't keep your secrets from me . . ." It got funnier & truer . . .

& More Go, Go, Go

IT'S not secret to South Trail residents (of storm-damaged homes) that when the P.G.&E. truck, the telephone truck & the mail truck couldn't get through their mud-ravaged road, golly, yes, if the Garbage Truck didn't make it! When we passed this compliment on to Ye Olde Sanitary & Disposal Service, they laughed because that very day (of the second rain recently) the slippery silt found the big van SOSing for a towtruck.

Complete w/crown, picture taken & a celebratory bottle of spirits to take along home . . . & the Les Rowes' newest grandchild has finally arrived! Baby BRETT 6# 11 oz., born to the Charles Burketts . . .

When Maudie Hammond was to model for Pat Merwin's drawing class at Miramonte Adult class last week, naturally everybody turned up! Everybody but Maudie. (A party intercepted our Fair One.) But Stella Epperson stepped up front instead subbing for Maudie so none of the students suffered for lack of a pretty subject . . .

PHOTOGRAPHER Robert Conover who does layout & art for Kaiser Industries is the man behind the camera'd black & whitets on view this month at Orinda Library . . . & if you are disgusted w/the movie industry's turnout of TRASH, yell loudly as Columnist John Crosby advises you to in his recent "Speaking Out" article (SatEvePost, Nov. 10) titled "Movies Are Too Dirty" . . . Most "adult" pictures aren't fit for grownups, let alone children . . .

JIM HUPP, has his recipe for "Coquilles Saint Jacques" (Scallops in the shell) featured in the attractive Co-op 25th Annv. Menu Book hot off the presses Nov. 1 & already into its second printing. No mere cook book, this one gives you whole menus, recipes for same & a nice idea for the Gourmets or Newlyweds on your list. $1.95 per copy at Co-op stores . . .

POST-ELECTION patter: Donna McNeil, wife of Hacienda Homes' pres. Murray, did her 'round the clock election board duty, arrived home at 6 in the yawning & turned up at 9 for her morning stint as mother-librarian at Orinda School . . .

Gals working the Sleepy Hollow section board were discussing the reasons for volunteering for election board & got this one for an answer—"Well, it kind of gives me the same good feeling that I get in church . . ." So . . . when the bleary-eyed count went into the wee hours of the morning, someone chided—"NOW do you have the same feeling you get in church?" . . . & if we want to go 'way back to Hallowe'en, let it be known that many homeowners asked the name of a little man who collected in costume for UNICEF but said "No, Thanks" to the sweets. Under the mask, it was Bobby Hart, Orinda Schooler.

MAN'S BEST FRIEND: The Bob Graces of So. Trail, away from their house till storm repairs are made, have their own special guardian, their big black dog "Tawny" (not Blackie?) who sleeps in the station wagon w/their cat Gretel, watches over everything in his master's absence, turns up for breakfast daily at the nearby neighbor's makes his rounds & then returns home again to stand guard.

THE SIMPLE OLD sneaker is sneaking up on the deodorant industry (Dear mothers, don't you wish the TWO could get together!!). Where once, in a moment of patient pacing, we counted 135 different deodorant brands, we did the same at Sutton's recently. The plain old black & wht. tennis shoe has given birth to a bevy of styles totaling 85. You can even get 'em in leather, flannel & plain wool!

OVER AT MIKE LYNN'S mid-week, enjoying a delightful lunch hosted by Fran Newman in honor of veteran newspaper woman Mary Ellen Leary (Mrs. Arthur Sherry) who was guest speaker at the morning meet of Friends of the Orinda Library . . . There was good light conversation served up w/the salad & many compliments coming forth for the well-known Scripps-Howard correspondent (whose fan we have been for many a year) from Friends pres. Helen Stark, County librarian Bertha Hellum, Orinda librarian Joan Kasten & Margaret Anderson, exhibits chairman for the library group.

"OUR GRASS ROOTS ARE GROWING" was the timely subject matter by the lady who leads three lives; mother of three, wife & hostess for lawyer husband & West Coast Janie-on-the-spot for special features . . . Wearing a sense-of-humor smile & some light-hearted stories up her shocking-pink suit sleeve, she proved a real informant touching on many close-to-suburbanite topics—the formation of ABAG (horrid name, but easy to remember), the Association of Bay Area Governments which holds conclaves to probe the problems of and plan for urban & suburban growth, Rapid Transit, libraries, parks & recreation areas, etc. She told of the model of the Bay Area (a treat for the kids) on view in Sausalito, which took a yr. to put together & serves as a testing-ground for all sorts of problems.

The lady w/a lilt to her subdued laughter preceded her Grass Roots talk by holding a post-mortem on the election & analyzing, in part, the victory for Governor Brown, which, such, must have been like eating crow for some of the stalwart Republicans on hand.

She gave a few nice pats to MRS. Brown & some background on the Governor's lady who, prior to her husband entering politics, was one of the most active members of the League of Women Voters' ranks.

WHAT'S DOING

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda

A cook's best friend is her kitchen telephone. That's the word we've heard from many a housewife here in town. And it makes a lot of sense. If the kitchen's the place she spends most of her time, then that's the most convenient place for her to make and take calls.

Many women like a wall phone for their kitchen extension; it hangs up handily, keeps work surfaces clear. Or you might prefer a regular desk set or the smaller Princess. Whichever you choose, you'll be delighted with a colorful kitchen telephone.

These are two "voiceprints"—picture patterns, made by a special machine, of two different people saying the word, "you." It's a new idea that holds a lot of promise in the field of identification.

Bell Telephone Laboratories scientists have found that voiceprints, like fingerprints, are so distinctly individual that experts can recognize one from millions of others. Even if the speakers yell, whisper, try an accent or fill their mouths with marbles, the patterns remain essentially the same.

Seems like there's no end of ideas in communications research—from making a picture of your voice to sending pictures around the world by satellite.

"The Good Old Days."

When someone says that, he's usually referring to the good old prices—the free lunch, penny candy, nickel cigars, shave-and-a-haircut six bits. You might think you'd have to go a long way to find anything that costs less today than it did in the good old days.

Yet back in 1915 a coast-to-coast phone call cost over $20.00. Today the same call costs just $2.25. So why not enjoy long distance telephone visits more often? Now would be a good time to start.

PROPOSED WALNUT CREEK RAPID TRANSIT STATION AT YGNACIO VALLEY ROAD AND NORTH MAIN STREET

TRANSIT STATION PLANNED FOR CAMINO PABLO IN ORINDA

Transit Planning Is Spurred by Savings

Rapid Transit officials completed a busy week of planning today, with several major steps taken to speed development of the three county system narrowly approved by the electorate last week.

Yesterday directors of the Bay Area District met to discuss a draft of a design and construction supervision contract with three engineering firms who estimate spending less than the $47 million provided for the job.

Tuesday the district's finance and engineering committees met with the engineering firms of Parsons, Brinckerhoff, Quade and Douglas, the Bechtel Corporation and the Tudor Engineering Company, and announced that right-of-way purchase would begin as soon as route and station site locations are firm.

LATE LAST week the district sent a delegation to Sacramento to complete agreements with the state for train operation on the median strip of the Grove-Shafter Freeway.

At the same time, Deputy Director of Public Works Fred Bagshaw told the board that work has begun on inclusion of the system on the freeway.

While transit officials awaited final certification of the November 6 vote before signing contracts, opposition to the program continued from Citizens Against Proposition A, whose Ad Fried, an Oakland public relations man, said he was confident development of the system could be brought to a halt.

LOCALLY, purchase of right-of-way is not expected to have any effect for "several months," but the Orinda Association is reportedly taking a long-range view of purchase of the Orinda station site.

SAVINGS ON the $47 million contract estimated yesterday were outlined by John R. Kiley, senior vice-president of the Bechtel Corporation.

Riley would give no exact figure, but indicated that the job cost would be under the amount earlier estimated by the district.

Transit's Bill Stokes told The Sun that the contract with the three firms, to be approved November 29, is on a retainer basis.

It provides district protection with a 60-day termination clause, previous approval of all services, and a "before and after" budgetary and engineering control every six months, Stokes said.

REGARDING right-of-way purchase, Transit spokesman Stan Thiess said that the district still has some flexibility in placement of stations and routes.

"This is a matter of feet and yards, but will require completion of large portions of the design contract before much property is purchased by the district," Thiess explained.

Opposition to the transit system continued to investigate legal ways of blocking the district, according to Ad Fried.

Fried said that attorneys were looking for loopholes in the legislative act providing for the district which might allow Alameda and Contra Costa Counties to withdraw.

He charged that voters "were not given all the facts," and that anti-transit groups were frozen out of print by the metropolitan dailies.

He also contended that pro and con argument on transit did not accompany the sample ballots mailed out preceding the election.

TRANSIT OFFICIALS replied that the electorate voted as members of a district, rather than counties, and explained that the counties had their biggest voice when their Boards of Supervisors approved transit plans.

"If we followed Fried's way of thinking, we would have elected two governors in the last election," Thiess said.

At the same time, County Clerk James Olsson said there was nothing unusual in omission of pro and con statements from the sample ballot.

"This is a precedent established by earlier votes on special districts and approved by council of the various counties," Olsson said.

He added that groups on both sides of the issue had asked to contribute arguments, but that law makes no provision for the pros and cons.

IN OTHER developments last week, transit directors announced that, in addition to following route and station plans spelled out in May, they would extend the system as soon as possible to other communities within the district.

Construction on the proposed system will begin in January, 1964.

Present plans for the Contra Costa line call for a route beginning at the MacArthur Station on the Grove-Shafter freeway and ending at the Clayton Road station in Concord.

Between these two terminal points, the district plans stations at College Avenue in Oakland, Camino Pablo in Orinda, Pleasant Hill Road in Lafayette, Ygnacio Valley Road in Walnut Creek and a Pleasant Hill station in the Walden area.

THE TRACKS, cutting to the north of, and far below the existing Caldecott Tunnel for 3.3 miles, will parallel Highway 24 on the north all the way to the Highway 21 interchange at Walnut Creek.

Along this route construction will be on grade from Orinda Station to Alacanes Road, except for a tunnel beneath the crest of the hill at Charles Hill Road.

The line will bridge Alacanes Road interchange, Sunnybrook Drive and Upper Happy Valley Road ramps, then continues on embankment and in cut to the Pleasant Hill Road interchange. There, an aerial structure will carry tracks over the road to the Lafayette station.

The line continues on grade and in cut and embankment with brief tunneling to the Highway 24-21 interchange, where it will rise above the interchange and continue as an elevated to the Walnut Creek Station.

Continuing elevated, the line will cross North Main Street and then run beneath Parkside Drive and Geary Road on grade to the Pleasant Hill station. A transit vehicle storage yard will be located between the Pleasant Hill and Concord stations.

Commuter's Plan Won't Solve 'Tunnel Behavior'

A psychological interpretation of commuter behavior resulted this week from rejection of a motorist's plan to alleviate the Caldecott Tunnel bottleneck.

The Division of Highways and The Sun received letters last week from Bernard F. Trimpe of Lafayette, who asked why the division couldn't route traffic into three lanes from Caldecott Tunnel during rush hours.

In the ensuing discussions, the division's Jack Grassburger said that the present problem was the tunnel itself, and added that there was a pattern of "tunnel behavior" among commuters which further slowed traffic.

GRASSBURGER said that he had replied to Trimpe, indicating that, until the third Caldecott bore was completed, an increase in lanes would serve no purpose.

He also told The Sun that drivers tend to decrease their speed markedly in the tunnel. "No one likes to enter a dark hole," he said.

Increased lighting at the portals of the tunnel resulted in a greater and faster flow of traffic, Grassburger said, and explained that more gradual transition from light to dark caused motorists to "pull back" less.

Complete bright lighting of the tunnel is planned when the third bore is completed, he said.

"THERE IS LITTLE gained with a label, but you might call part of this reaction simple claustrophobia," a psychologist in Walnut Creek told The Sun.

Dr. Jack Little of the Institute for Social and Personal Relations said that he knew of no studies of freeway and tunnel behavior, but indicated that engineers might give more weight to psychological factors in future planning.

Better lighting, illusory painting and means to control tunnel sounds might decrease unusual behavior in tunnels, the doctor said, but added that complete study of the problem was required before psychological factors can be evaluated.

"Such studies are already affecting city planning and building design," he said.

Dr. Little pointed out that motorists on mountain roads tend to crowd away from the drop-off, but can be provided more psychological security with simple markers or rails which have little effect on physical security.

He said that use of new tunnel shapes and surfaces might similarly relieve motorists in tunnels.

THE ECHO distortion of the Doppler sound effect (increase or decrease in pitch of sound from a moving object) is another factor which may trouble the tunnel driver, the doctor said.

The suggestion from Trimpe which led indirectly to psychological considerations was that rubber traffic guides be used to route commute traffic into three lanes from the tunnel to Orinda in the evening and west of the tunnel in the morning. Grassburger said that traffic could not move faster than it moves at its most constricted point, and explained that the freeway will be widened to eight lanes on either side of the tunnel when Caldecott Three is completed next year.

Sun Orient Holiday Plans Announced by Publisher

Preliminary plans for "The Sun Orient Holiday," beginning Friday, April 19, and open to all residents of the area, have been announced by Sun Publisher Herman Silverman.

The Sun Orient Holiday, which in 21 days will include leisurely stopovers at such places as Honolulu, Tokyo, Formosa and Hong Kong, is the newest in a series of travel tours sponsored by The Sun, and which each time attracts an amiable group of travelers appreciative of the low cost.

Details of the trip, costs and

Coolley Chosen to Lead Fund Drive

John L. Coolley, 1969 Meadow Road in Walnut Creek, has been appointed county chairman for the annual educational and fund-raising campaign to be conducted in April by the Contra Costa branch of the American Cancer Society.

The announcement was made recently by two Contra Costa officers of the Society, Jack Chapman of Alamo, vice president in charge of personnel, and Julian Stern of Lafayette, vice president in charge of fund raising.

Coolley came to the Contra Costa branch of the American Cancer Society last year as campaign director and member of the board of directors, after his retirement as vice president of California Research Corporation, a subsidiary of Standard Oil of California.

Motor-fuel consumption is expected to exceed 67 billion gallons for the United States in 1962, reports the National Automobile Club.

Grass Flies After Only One Sun Day

A Lawn-Boy power mower was sold by L. H. Searight, 3340 Rowland Drive, Lafayette, with a single Sun want ad.

One Sun want ad sold a double bed, bookcase, boxspring and frame for Robert Desdier, 292 Oakview Road, Pleasant Hill. And A. L. Sullivan, also of Pleasant Hill, sold a girl's 24-inch bike with a single ad in The Sun.

Sun want ads frequently sell goods after only one appearance in Sun publications. So frequently our "success stories" are everyday affairs.

This is because of the big 6-in-1 pulling power of The Sun classified section.

A single ad in The Sun appears in all five Sun publications: the 58,000-circulation Sun Shopping News, The Orinda Sun, The Pleasant Hill Sun, The Walnut Creek Sun and The Lafayette Sun.

A 14-word ad costs only $1.60, even less for multiple runs. Call a Sun advertiser at 934-5000 or 284-4444.

One Sun want ad can tell a "success story" for you!

Deputies Check Golf Club Theft, Arson, Burglary

A $5000 golf club robbery, several residential burglaries and a case of arson were investigated by sheriff's deputies this week.

Burglars forced their way into a window at the golf shop at Round Hill Country Club and stole an estimated $5700 worth of clothing and golf equipment sometime Monday night before midnight, according to the sheriff's reports.

THE SHOP is owned by Warren Downing.

An arson attempt was made at the residence of Alfred Meggs, 1 Gable Lane, Lafayette, when deputies discovered the remnants of a flare in the mailbox together with ashes from burned mail, last Thursday.

A case of Scotch whiskey, a case of white wine and one of cherry wine were stolen from the home of John Fisher, 955 Stowe Lane, Lafayette, over the week end.

Deputies said the responsible broke into the house via a bathroom window.

Drawers in the bedroom of the Ed Sillinary home at 2244 San Miguel Road, Walnut Creek, were ransacked last week by burglars apparently in search of money. No valuables were reported missing.

High Rise Apts Foreseen Near Transit Routes

A leading transportation expert predicted, before the Rapid Transit Bond Issue passed, construction of high rise apartments along the Eastbay routes of the transit system.

Now that Bay Area Rapid Transit directors are beginning detailed engineering studies, the predictions of Walter J. McCarter, general manager of the Chicago Transit Authority, are that much closer to reality.

McCarter, speaking in Oakland, said he based his forecast on "what has happened in cities throughout the world."

"Outside the central shopping districts," McCarter said, "huge apartment structures will be built adjacent to the transit lines."

In cities where modern transit facilities have been built, he explained, the public has insisted on housing close to the lines and large parking areas at stations to serve suburban residents.

County 4-H Meets, Elects Officers

4-H Clubs from Danville, Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill were among those represented at a county-wide training session for club officers held Saturday in Pittsburg.

Contra Costa 1962 All-Star Trudy Mazai supervised election of officers. Elected were Greg Carnhill, president, Regina Hesse, vice-president, Susan Bryn, secretary, and Judy Lam-born, treasurer.

Kink Made Straighter By Detours

Alleviation of the infamous "kink" in Highway 24 between Orinda and Caldecott Tunnel came this week, and more is expected next week as a result of two new construction detours.

On Tuesday highway engineers put into effect a 1000-foot detour from Kaiser Road west which moved westbound traffic about one lane to the north, according to resident engineer Fred Campbell.

A similar detour of 500 feet will be added to the west end of this detour next "Monday or Tuesday," Campbell said.

The detours are part of the pipe-laying job which will run the entire length of the project, but were to be installed slightly ahead of schedule to help straighten out the kink, Campbell explained.

Eventually, Campbell said, the detour will run the length of the project, and will be in effect for about a year, he added.

Cost of Storm Clean-Up Rises

Slightly over two weeks of storm damage clean-up has cost Contra Costa County over $50,000 in equipment rentals alone.

According to a report to the Board of Supervisors last week, 3732 equipment hours were worked on equipment rented from 46 different firms or individuals.

Estimated costs are $53,763, $39,888 of which was spent in the Lafayette-Orinda-Danville area of the county.

A giant tank truck can take a load of 5000 gallons in less than 15 minutes, according to the National Automobile Club.

The sermon will be followed by a fellowship hour when members and visitors have an opportunity to get better acquainted over a cup of coffee.

Sunday school precedes the morning worship, and starts at 9:45.

The regular weekly Baptist youth Fellowship meeting is held at 7 p.m.

The Moraga Hills Church is affiliated with the American Baptist Convention and is located on Moraga Road about one-half mile north of Rheem.

ORINDA COMMUNITY
 (United Church of Christ)
 "A Godly Word" will be the Reverend Chauncey Blossom's sermon topic at the 9:30 and 11 o'clock worship services in the Orinda Community Church.

There will be reception of new members at the second service followed by a coffee hour in Fellowship Hall.

Church school classes will be held during each service and child care will be provided.

Pilgrim fellowship will meet at the church at 7 p.m.

The Reverend Byron Eshleman, author of "Death Row Chaplain," will discuss capital punishment at the library forum night on Tuesday, 8 p.m. at the church. The public is invited.

PRESBYTERIAN
 The Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church, 49 Knox Drive, Lafayette, will hold Sunday worship services at 10 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. The Rev. William Carl Thomas will deliver the sermon "Separation of God and State."

Adult study classes, the primary choir, and church school classes for fourth grade through senior high school will be held at 9 a.m.

Church school classes for children through the sixth grade will be at 10 a.m.

Classes for all ages through senior high school will be at 11:15 a.m. Nursery care and classes for children through kindergarten will be provided at 9, 10 and 11:15 a.m.

Members and friends of the church are invited to attend Thanksgiving Day services at the Orinda Community Church, 10 Irwin Way, Orinda at 10 a.m.

LUTHERAN
 "The Perfect Work of God" will be the sermon theme of the Rev. Merle O. Tollefson at Our Savior's Lutheran Church, 1035 Carol Lane, Lafayette at both the 8:30 and 10:45 a.m. services Sunday. There will be reception of new members following the second service.

Two sections of religious education are offered. At 9:30 a.m., a complete Sunday school with individually graded classes through the adult department are available. At 10:45, a convenience Sunday school is offered for children three years old through the third grade.

Sunday evening the couples club will meet at 6:30 for a progressive dinner. The mid-week Bible study group meets Wednesday at 8 p.m. for a period of prayer and Bible discussion.

Thanksgiving Day services will be held at 10 a.m. with Chaplain Carl P. Schmidt from the Oakland Veterans Hospital as guest preacher.

EPISCOPAL
 Services this Sunday will be Holy Communion at 8:30 a.m. and the family worship of morning prayer at 9:30 a.m.

Sunday school will be at 9:30 a.m. with child care provided for children under three.

The vicar, the Rev. William J. Frankhuizen, will conduct both services.

There will be Holy Communion Thanksgiving Day at 10 a.m.

St. Giles' serves the area of southern Orinda and Moraga Services are at Inland Valley School, 70 Ivy Drive, Orinda.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
 A special Thanksgiving Day service, traditional in Christian Science churches all over the world will be held in this area at 11 a.m. Thursday.

Christian Science churches are located at 3422 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette; 22 Orinda Way, Orinda; 2 Eckley Lane, Walnut Creek; Grant and Park Streets, Concord; and Kahrs Avenue and Boyd Road, Pleasant Hill.

Everyone is welcome. No collections will be taken.

Hymns, prayer and a specially prepared Bible lesson - sermon are all a part of the service, with a period set aside for spontaneous expressions of gratitude by the congregation.

Included in the responsive reading will be these Bible verses from I Chronicles: "Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name . . . O Lord our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own."

From Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy will be read: "If we feel the aspiration, humility, gratitude, and love which our words express, this God accepts; . . ." (p. 8).

Thanksgiving proclamations by the president and/or the governor will be read as part of the service by the first reader.

Go to Church Sunday

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
 Spiritual healing will be a topic dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday in a lesson-sermon on the subject "Mortals and Immortals."

Scriptural selections will include this verse from Matthew: "And when He had called unto Him His 12 disciples, He gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease."

One of the correlative citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states:

"Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them. This is an element of progress, and progress is the law of God, whose law demands of us only what we can certainly fulfill" (p. 233).

Christian Science churches are located at 3422 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette; 22 Orinda Way, Orinda; 2 Eckley Lane, Walnut Creek; Grant and Park streets, Concord; and Kahrs Avenue and Boyd Road, Pleasant Hill.

LUTHERAN
 "Those Unprescribed Decisions" will be the topic of the Reverend Albert S. Hidy's sermon Sunday at Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, 433

Moraga Way in Orinda. Worship services are at 8 and 11 a.m. and Sunday school is at 9:30 a.m. A nursery is provided at the parish house at 11 a.m.

Luther League meets at 7 p.m. Sunday. Tuesday, the junior confirmation class meets with the pastor at 6 p.m. and the senior class at 7 p.m.

"The American Dream" will be the topic of Reverend Albert S. Hidy's sermon on Thanksgiving Eve at 7:30 p.m. A special invitation is extended to the community to attend.

METHODIST

This Sunday the sermon topic of the Reverend George E. Berry will be "Therapy of Thanks." Services are held at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. at the Lafayette Methodist Church, 955 Moraga Road. Nursery care is provided during both services. Church school classes are held at 9:30 a.m.; an adult Bible class is at 9:30 a.m.

This Sunday at 7 p.m. is the last in a series of the School of Christian Living in which the entire family participates in classes, then join in the fellowship of a movie and refreshments. The youth groups are also held at this time, with the Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship (seventh and eighth graders) under the sponsorship of Mr. and Mrs. John Skillman; and the High School Methodist Youth Fellowship under the sponsorship of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cotterall. All are welcome. Wednesday at 8 p.m. the Methodist Church will join those in the district to attend a Thanksgiving service at First Methodist Church, Oakland. The speaker will be Bishop Dodge of Angola, Africa. All are welcome.

UNITARIAN

"We Are Thankful" will be the sermon topic of Rev. Aron S. Gilmartin at the Mt. Diablo Unitarian Church Sunday.

Adult services are held at the Red Cross Building, 2121 Ygnacia Valley Road, Walnut Creek at 9 and 11 a.m.

For information regarding the Sunday school program please call Mrs. Pierson at YE 5-7505.

SUBURBAN BIBLE

This Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Suburban Bible Church, the Rev. Gray Lambert will deliver the morning message on the Thanksgiving theme. His message will be entitled "Thanksgiving and the Will of God." At 9:45 a.m. graded Sunday school classes are held for all ages from the nursery through the adult age level.

Activities of the church during the coming week include:

Tuesday — the ladies' Bible class of the church will meet at the Armerding home, 11 Park Avenue, Walnut Creek at 9:30 a.m.

Wednesday—the church family will meet for prayer and Bible study at the Lafayette Community Center, St. Mary's Road at 7:15 p.m.

'In the Shadows'

Editor's note: The Sun's tid-bit column has a new title, as you will notice. It is the result of much discussion and soul-searching. We hope the readers approve.

HER VOTE is as precious to her as her eyes, and Barbara Goldeen of Lafayette proved it last week. She refused to undergo surgery for a detached retina on her right eye until she peered over her ballot with her good left eye and put her XXX's in place.

Her husband, Sam, convinced the registrar's office in Martinez that this was an emergency operation, his wife had no time to get an absentee ballot (they are both law students and can get pretty technical), raced with it over to U. C. hospital in San Francisco, waited, along with the anesthetist, the surgeon and the nurses, while his wife filled it out, and rushed it back to their precinct in Lafayette after both operations were finished.

NO COMMENT is necessary on this: Sponsors tomorrow night of the premiere showing of the Diablo Light Opera's production of "Most Happy Fella" is—ideally—The Planned Parenthood League of Alameda County!

TYPICAL TEACHER in public schools today is not a young girl looking for a husband, because she has had one for several years. Furthermore, she is likely to have one or two kids tearing up the furniture in her own home, according to the National Education Association survey just completed.

Typical teacher today is 41.5 years of age and has been teaching 13 or 14 years. So you'll have to use other bait to lure your husband to the next parent-teacher conference.

SOMETHING to be thankful for: A prominent young Orinda matron, shopping at Black's Market for her holiday dinner, decided she wanted something other than the traditional turkey. In a loud voice, to Vasco Giannini, behind the meat counter, she said: "I haven't had a good goose in a long time!"

BACK IN BUSINESS once again is the Freedom Bookshop in Lafayette, after being closed for a week. The shop, which features conservative and anti-United Nations literature, opened the door and removed the sign which read, "Closed while we go campaigning for Max Rafferty."

SOMEONE'S LION, but no one will talk. Early Monday morning two lion cubs were taken into the offices of Dr. George H. Muller, Walnut Creek veterinarian, for treatment.

Whose they are, or what's wrong with the itty bitty beasties is a big mystery. Is there a visiting Indian potentate holed up incognito in Walnut Creek? What's up, Doc?

THE FORMER and the latter Mrs. Mel Nielsen were among the guests Friday night at the Christmas Cargoes party at Jack London Hall, Oakland (to benefit the Legal Aid Society of Alameda County). The former wife of the Lafayette supervisor being the present Cita Rude, wife of a South American medico. The latter, being Helen Risdon Nielsen, the supervisor's former secretary, and present wife.

THE OMNIPOTENCE of Montgomery-Ward is felt everywhere in Pleasant Hill. Even among the small fry. Stephen Rapida and Raymond McCall, students at Christ the King Parochial School, were riding in their school bus when a big, yellow Mt. Diablo District bus passed them. On the rear was the bus' brand name, "Ward." "Gee," said Stephen, "that store sells everything!"

NOT FOR REAL... The annual practice "walk home" from the Walnut Creek schools, scheduled for this noon, will be canceled in the event of a disaster like rain!

Obituaries

ARTHUR DEWEY KLUMP Arthur D. Klump, 90, a retired printer, died Thursday in his Murphys home.

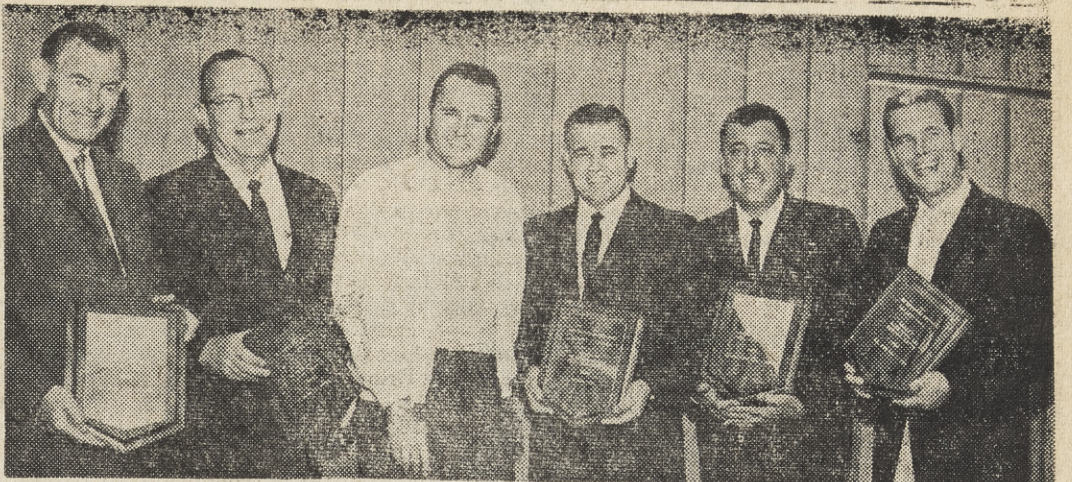

Klump and his wife Iena recently celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary. Among those who attended were the couple's two daughters, Mrs. Gladys Shally of Canyon, and Mrs. Alice Busan of Walnut Creek.

Besides his wife and two daughters, Klump's survivors include two sons, two sisters, and grandchildren.

A native of Delaware, Klump lived in Calaveras County for 25 years. After his retirement, he lived for many years in Oakland before moving to Murphys.

Services were Sunday at Angels Camp. Interment was in Buena Vista Cemetery, Murphys.

The American Society currently is investing more than $2,000,000 on a broad program of leukemia-related research. Leukemia is the leading cause of death from cancer among children under 15.

County Dissolves Sewer Districts, Approves Map

The County Board of Supervisors started proceedings for dissolving six county sewer maintenance districts including the Las Lomas and Camino districts in Danville.

Approval was given to the Public Works Department for county participation in a proposed map for the City of Walnut Creek. The county will spend $8500 toward the project, which will cost $14,973.

By photogrammetric methods, 8264 acres of the Walnut Creek area will be mapped from the air. Additional costs will be met by the City of Walnut Creek.

In other business, the board approved a rezoning to retail business of a small parcel in Alamo owned by a lumber yard.

Approval was given for $4900 worth of culvert work being done along St. Mary's Road in Lafayette by the Public Works Department.

The board ratified the action of the public works director, Victor Sauer, to order Pinehurst Road closed to through traffic until repair of slides and storm damage in the Canyon area have been completed.

Two hearing dates were set. On December 4, the board will hear applicants for a request to establish a gas station on Mt. Diablo Boulevard and First Street in Lafayette.

On December 11, the board will hear a petition for the transfer of north Pleasant Hill land to the Central County Fire Protection District.

Leukemia—a cancer of the blood-forming tissues—causes more deaths among men than among women, according to an American Cancer Society report.

Builders Win Merchandising Contest

Bruce Stringer, president of the Home Builders Association of Contra Costa County, officiated at a recent presentation of award winning plaques to builder members of the local group who won first prize in the "Better Merchandised Home Contest."

"The purpose of the contest was to expand the desire to merchandise homes in a more efficient manner," said Stringer.

The theme of the contest was "more quality for your money through better merchandising."

Winners in the five categories were: Peter J. Frumenti, $20,000 and under; W. L. Netherby, 20 to 30 thousand; Fuller & Eymann, 30 to 40 thousand; the Osmundsen Company, over $40,000 and Kermit L. Lincoln, multiple units.

Canyon's Cutoff Still Closed to Commuters

The much-used Moraga-to-Oakland commute route through Canyon is still closed, and will remain so indefinitely, according to the County Public Works Department.

Ever since October 14, Pinehurst Road has been closed, detouring added traffic into Caldecott Tunnel. During road construction on Highway 24, the California Highway Patrol reports three or four times as many "fender benders" daily.

RESIDENTS of Canyon, 40 strong, gathered in the tiny Canyon school house last Thursday night to discuss with Paul Kilkenny, assistant county public works director, what could be done to make the town's roads passable.

Canyon and Moraga were hardest hit in the county during the big storm, with over 20 inches falling within 60 hours.

Because of the hazardous conditions of the road, Kilkenny stated that Pinehurst Road was blocked off at Skyline Boulevard by a concrete-based guard rail. Redwood Road was blocked by a padlocked steel gate across its 35th Avenue exit.

Over the week end, someone cut the chain locking one gate and destroyed the gate and post on the other end.

"WE MAY NOT agree with the county's tight closure of the roads, but we certainly don't condone vandalism," stated Mrs. Laurie Williams, president of the Canyon Community Club.

Mrs. Williams explained that Canyon is not isolated. The reporter of a city paper assumed this because at the entrance to Pinehurst Road was a "sawhorse sign" which read "road closed."

This has been replaced with a sign which correctly reads: "Not a through street," Mrs. Williams explained.

The Canyon Community Club called the meeting at which Kilkenny explained the delay in opening the roads was due to: road crews are still cleaning up after the storm in other areas; also, the uncertainty of obtaining federal aid; the unknown extent of repairs necessary to restore the roads.

MONDAY, a geologist took a test drilling, reviewed the area's history and reported to the county. The report was not very encouraging, according to F. R. Brown, chief deputy for the public works director.

Road crews have been working in the area since the storm to clean up mud on the roads. A bulldozer is constructing a detour around the big slide, just above the old Sacramento Northern tunnel portal, said Brown.

Although residents feel that damage to Redwood Road was less extensive than that done to Pinehurst Road, work on the latter is going ahead first. The reason the county gave for this was because Redwood qualifies for federal aid, and work on it will be delayed until the extent of federal aid allowed is known.

During the meeting, a petition was passed around for the residents to sign. It will be sent to the County Board of Supervisors protesting the "seriousness and inconvenience" of the road situation in Canyon.

"More rains could cause considerable more damage if the roads aren't fixed in time; but the crews are all out there busy," said Brown.

Solid Subjects Popular With Local Students

Students in the Acalanes Union High School District—Acalanes, Campolindo, Del Valle, Las Lomas and Miramonte High Schools, are taking many of the traditionally "solid subjects," according to a report released this week by Acalanes District Superintendent Neil M. Parsons.

An October survey of the high school subjects taken by the 1049 seniors in the Acalanes district indicates "intensive participation in basic subjects," Parsons stated.

Parsons explained that this year's seniors have three years or more of English, while 86 per cent are taking four full years of English in their secondary programs.

"NEARLY 80 per cent of the present senior group has two years or more of mathematics, with almost 50 per cent taking three years of math in a program that provides an additional fifth year of advanced math as an option for 'able' students," Parsons said.

"Two years of foreign language studies are being taken by more than 62 per cent of this year's seniors, with 37 per cent of the seniors taking foreign languages for three years or more."

Nine per cent studying at least two foreign languages while in high school.

"ALL OF the present senior class has taken three years or more of social studies, including courses in American Government, U. S. History, World History and Geography, with additional electives.

"Seniors are taking an active interest in science, too," Parsons reported, "with better than 76 per cent enrolled in two years or more of science instruction and as high as 40 per cent involved in three years or more work of science studies."

Parsons observed that "participation in the 'solid' subjects offered in the Acalanes district high schools is well above the national average for secondary schools in the United States and probably also exceeds the California State average."

Bishop Dodge to Speak on Africa

Methodist Church work in "politically explosive Africa" will be the subject of an address to area churchmen and the general public by Bishop Ralph E. Dodge.

COUNSELING AND GUIDANCE are important factors in maintaining student enrollment in "traditional solid" courses in the elective program, according to counselor Merrill Callow, right, shown advising Mrs. Ruth Crooks and her son Bob.

Transit Gains County Votes

While official returns on the Rapid Transit bond election are not expected until next week, canvass of the vote this week indicated transit gaining votes in Contra Costa County.

County Clerk Walter Paasch said the most recent count indicates 81,813 to 68,343 in favor of the bonds.

Unofficial count had indicated 81,284 to 68,120.

Health Museum Proposal to Be Considered

"Is Contra Costa County ready for a health museum?"

"This subject will be discussed and the function of a health museum explained at a meeting of key citizens and representatives from the County Schools Office, County Health Department, and other organizations Tuesday at 12 noon in the board room of the Lafayette Schools Administration Office, 3477 School Street, Lafayette," B. Otis Cobb, M.D., school health consultant for the County Health Department, said today.

"Anyone in the county who is interested in having a health museum in this county is urged to attend this meeting. Coffee will be furnished for those who wish to bring their lunch," Dr. Cobb added.

"Dr. Bruno Gebhard, director of the nationally famous Cleveland Health Museum will visit this area in the near future. If there is sufficient interest shown in a Contra Costa County Health Museum at the November 20th meeting, Dr. Gebhard has agreed to meet with us in a subsequent planning meeting," Dr. Cobb said.

Victor Johnson Is Selected Chairman

Victor Johnson of Orinda was recently selected to the Whitworth College delegation to the Model United Nations 1963 session at San Jose College, April 24-27.

Johnson is the son of Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Johnson of 15 Camino Del Diablo. He is a senior at Whitworth, majoring in history.

A Flying Veterinarian Leads an Active Life

Dr. Joseph H. Lorber, DVM, staff member of Mt. Diablo Group 8, Civil Air Patrol, leads an exciting life of public service and scientific research.

The facets of his life are multiple.

As a veterinarian, with offices and hospital at 3703 Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette, his clients range from neighborhood pets and local wildlife to domestic stock on farms and ranges in the Bay Area.

About twice a year, he is called to assist in the care and shipment to the United States, of monkeys and other "exotic" animals from Singapore, Borneo, Calcutta, Manila and other far away places.

THOUSANDS OF monkeys a year are imported for use in processing Salk vaccine and other vital modern day medicines necessary to our national health requirements.

Many "monks" and chimpanzees are used in our space travel programs. Some have become famous as "astronauts."

Shipping losses of these valuable animals run as high as 200 out of a shipment of 1700, that are dead on arrival, as a result of chilling during stopovers in strange ports, wrong feeding or inadequate housing enroute.

For many years Dr. Lorber has been flying with the airlines, as caretaker-veterinarian with these animal cargo air-lifts as the U.S. attempts to keep as many animals alive as possible.

With shipping losses cut to a bare minimum, as a result of his expert handling of the animals, his value to the project does not end there.

Dr. Lorber is an avid and accomplished flier, and can double as a co-pilot on the flights, should an emergency arise.

HE HOLDS a commercial instrument rating and glider pilot certificate and is a "ham" radio operator.

His sound medical and life-saving techniques have been instrumental in setting an all-time record for animal importation!

On one trip from Manila to Oakland International Airport, he brought back a cargo of 1700 monkeys, losing only one.

Dr. Lorber is an ex-faculty member of the University of California Research Division, and has contributed much to science through his work and writing.

Many scientific articles by Dr. Lorber have appeared in the "Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association" and other well known national magazines.

HIS TALENTS and zest for living end him below the waters where he has mastered the art of "scuba-diving." And CIVIL AIR PATROL pilot Joseph Lorber stands in front of his plane at Buchanan Field ready for another flight.

Mike Farris Studies at Mexico College

Mike Farris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Farris, 31 Broadview Terrace, Orinda, is studying in the largest metropolitan city in Latin America at Mexico City College.

Dr. D. Ray Lindley, president of the college says, "Few schools in the entire world are in better position to provide a truly international and intercultural education."

The college, according to statistics released by the Institute of International Education, has a larger enrollment of American students outside the borders of the United States than any other university.

"We live in one world, and all too much of education in the world is provincial. At MCC we are working toward the type of education which can throw off this provincialism and help each one of us to learn to live with every individual as a human being, regardless of race, creed or color," Dr. Lindley said.

Mike Farris attended Fremont High and after graduating went to Central Washington College and Chico State College.

Most MCC students live in college-approved homes with Mexican families. By learning something of each other's language and customs, ties of friendship between the people of the two countries are strengthened.

Student Body Presidents Speak At Campolindo

Bart Rocca and Bob Williams, presidents of the associated student governments at Acalanes High and Miramonte High schools respectively, recently described the role of student body organization and activities for students at Campolindo High School.

Students at Campolindo High have been working on a constitution and student government organization and will vote later this month for a slate of officers.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS emphasize the value of student government activities in providing an opportunity for practical experiences in democratic government, reasonable self-control, parliamentary procedure, and collective and individual responsibility.

Student presidents Rocca and Williams outlined government activities at their schools as including a representative student council, operating subcommittees, and a system of commissioners and officers responsible for executive direction of student activity. A student "court system" which contributes to self-discipline at school functions was also described.

BOTH PRESIDENTS emphasized the practical leadership opportunities open to students who participate in campus organization activity at high school. "Everyone in the school can also get into the act and do something constructive," Campolindo High School, the fifth and newest secondary plant in the Acalanes Union High School District, opened for the first time this September to a ninth grade class. Student committees at the new school have been studying several plans of student government organization preparatory to setting up their own system.

Moraga Memo

By JANE PUTNAM

Giving a Zillion Thanks . . .

THANKSGIVINGTIME is the season for giving thanks; and it is a good thing we are reminded by a presidential proclamation once a year to express gratitude. Even hardened newspapermen like The Sun's George Colburn grow soft. (Watch for his "Count Your Blessings" in the Staff Corner next week.)

In the valley, we needn't look far to find a zillion blessings. Right under our own shake roof there's a spouse, children, tv set and diminishing mortgage. There's family and friends and other obvious blessings like health. Heading the all-American thank-list this year, of course, is world peace, however shaky.

And we are especially thankful to be living in Moraga, California, U.S.A., the garden spot of creation. We appreciate our new high school, growing grammar schools, and the fact that many of us do not yet have a luxury garden apartment overlooking our patio.

It's a time for nostalgia—not only of our own childhood, but of the roots of America. We think of the pilgrims giving thanks for a plentiful harvest in 1621. We think of Mom's plentiful table in the days we fought over the wishbone.

And how about Jose Y Moraga? His Thanksgiving in the old adobe must have been a far cry (but not in spirit) from the lavish spread of its present occupants, the William Thornton Whites in the remodeled, all-electric ranchhouse.

A Mexican turkey with a Spanish accent may have been the ancestor of some of the birds on the Pilgrim's Thanksgiving menu. Spaniards brought Mexican turkeys to Europe in the early 1500s and later they reached England. The Pilgrims are reported to have brought several to America in 1620. When I mentioned this fascinating bit of info to our ed as a great seasonal filler, he shook his head negatively and said: "No local tie-in." But he added brightly that we had a picture of a bird in today's paper. I asked: "How come? No local tie-in." "Oh, it's a local bird," he said.

HETFIELD ROAD in Orchard Dell is abuzz with holiday preparations. George and Florence Darby with their three children, Bruce Jim and Kenny, are going to Southern California over the four-day weekend to visit their old neighbors . . . Jean and Bob and Nancy Spencer returned from a combined business trip and winter vacation in Arizona (via Las Vegas) to spend Thanksgiving at home.

Between making stuffing and cranberry sauce, Louis Hubbard, Barbara Workinger and Jan Reinecke are busily planning the block's cocktail party for December.

MORAGA NEWCOMERS will hold a "get-together" Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Harold Hartman, 1048 Sanders Drive. All new residents are invited to attend, learn about the aims of the club and enjoy a yummy dessert. For further info, call Mrs. Richard Avery, 376-4173, or Mrs. Vincent Keilman, 376-4803.

The girls are planning a Christmas dinner-dance December 1 at the Concord Inn. Fifty couples are planning on getting the holiday season off to a swinging start at the soiree.

NIGHTCAP AT GIMBO'S Saturday p.m. Grandmother Martin, here from Seattle for Thanksgiving, was being given the red-carpet treatment by Hank and Trudy. The vivacious grandmother has no problem keeping up with son Hank, Cmdr. USN (ret.), now with Prudential, and Trudy and the seven little Martins. Matter-of-fact, she seems to be a couple of steps ahead of them.

Two bachelors-about-town, attorney Robert Athey and Robert Gelhard, were having a late coke. Robert Athey is an old Lion and Robert Gelhard was taken into the fold at the last meeting at the Moraga Barn. Their den is a duplex on Donald Drive.

Jack Neldham and his beautiful blonde Pat were having a late glass of orange juice. Jack, who was on the citizen's committee for Bay Area Rapid Transit and effectively climbed on a soapbox for same, expressed this elation that "rancid transit" had made the grade. And how else did you expect the president of the National Bakers' Association to talk?

MORAGA POTPOURRI. Bob Blackmur, son of the Arn Blackmurs of Donald Drive, is one of the youngsters in "Inherit the Wind," opening at the Lafayette Town Hall tonight. Curtain time is 8:30 Fridays and Saturdays. We hear that this production is of the same quality we've come to expect of our sterling Dramateurs.

The bookmobile has had a sudden surge of requests for novels by Nobel Prize winning Californian John Steinbeck. The county library says that since "Grapes of Wrath" was published in 1939, 80 copies of this title have been worn out and replaced. Among the few competitors of such a record are Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and Margaret Mitchell's "Gone With the Wind."

CARROLL COUNTRY CLUB notes. Charm Ellwein and Eileen Hobson have organized bridge get-togethers. The next will be November 23 . . . Friday evening bowling is going strong . . . The Beatnik party was a great success thanks largely to the efforts of Gussie Abramsen, Edith Reed, Freedy Onisko, Elsie Mastick, Pauline Belavich, Coreen Brennan, Kathleen Pilling and Dorothy Meredith . . . The clubs open house Christmas party will be from 4-7 p.m. December 15.

MORAGA VALLEY COMMUNITY CLUB recently voted to donate $50 to help with costs of the Taxpayers' suit filed by the Lafayette Homeowners Association against the County Board of Supervisors. The sups. reversed the planning commission's denial of "Red" Soule's application to rezone a single family area to multiple. However, at Monday's MVCC meeting there wasn't a quorum of officers, so the donation couldn't become official. The club's sentiments are with the homeowners. Trouble is, sentiment doesn't pay the lawyer.

A ZILLION AND ONE. (I'm still counting blessings) . . . We're going to Mom's for Thanksgiving dinner.

Campolindo Parents Club Officers Have 1st Meeting

The first meeting of the Campolindo Parents Club officers was held recently at the home of Charles Ivy, president of the organization. The officers and appointed committee chairmen were introduced and their particular jobs for the year were discussed.

OFFICERS OF the Parents Club for the new Campolindo High School are: president, Charles Ivy; vice president, Elliot Hartman; recording secretary, Rose Van Dyke; treasurer, Walter Gritzer; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Donald Schild; parliamentarian, Alex Winchester, who is also the principal of Campolindo.

The appointed committee chairmen are: membership, Mrs. M. W. Osmunson; hospitality, Mrs. Walter Ammon; program, Elliot Hartman; bulletin, Mrs. A. C. Marshall; publicity, Mrs. Robert Edgren; school, Winchester and faculty; community and student welfare, Mrs. Homer Price; ways and means, John Zimmerman; budget, Walter Gritzer.

Mrs. Osmunson announced that she would launch the membership drive with the help of her captains.

They hope to collect as close to 100 per cent as possible to get the new high school off to a good start.

Plans are being made to establish a scholarship fund for Campolindo students.

The next general Campolindo Parents Club meeting will be Back-to-School Night, November 26.

Latest American Cancer Society estimates show that 177,000 Americans who develop cancer in 1963 will recover. Of this number, 44,000 would not have had a chance for survival several years ago.

Insurance Men Name Officers

New officers of the Contra Costa County Association of Insurance Agents were installed at a dinner meeting in Walnut Creek Monday.

New leaders of the group are Earl Goldman, president; Frank Marshall, vice president; Jim Smith, secretary-treasurer; Bill Jenkins and Bill Buchanan, board members.

Harry Schroeter, past-president of the California Association of Insurance Agents, installed the new officers.

Heart Association Appoints PH Woman

Mrs. Stanley Crump, 5 Westover Court, Pleasant Hill, has been named chairman of the nutrition committee of the Contra Costa County Heart Association. Announcement was made recently by Dr. Irving Fein, president of the organization.

A resident in this area for the past twelve years, Mrs. Crump helped organize the nutrition committee when the Contra Costa County Heart Association was first formed in 1951.

She has been a member of the committee each year since then.

Scouts Toughen Up at Camporee

Over 300 Boy Scouts from 12 troops attended a fall camporee at Grass Valley Regional Park. The scouts, all from the Meridian District of the Mt. Diablo Council, concentrated on physical fitness in addition to traditional scoutcraft work, according to Bob Imrie, district commissioner.

Homebuyers Hear of Legal Hazards

The Home Buyers Protective Association held its first general meeting Wednesday in the Contra Costa Real Estate Board building in Walnut Creek.

Lafayette attorney Arthur Robson spoke on "Pitfalls in Home Buying" from a legal point of view, according to Carol B. Collins, program chairman.

Mrs. Collins said that anyone interested in the group's program of providing information to the potential homebuyer and supporting protective legislation should contact her by telephone.

Christmas Mail Deadline Set By Postal Officials

Although it's not yet Thanksgiving, the Post Office has recommended early planning of Christmas mailings.

Recommended deadlines for various types of Christmas mail were set last week by Regional Department Director Raymond R. Holmquist.

"Patrons can assist the postal workers in delivering the Christmas mail in time for the holiday by jotting down a few dates now," Holmquist said.

HERE ARE the deadlines recommended:

Mailing of gift parcels for distant states during the first week of December; mailing of gift parcels for local and nearby areas by December 12.

Mailing of greeting cards for distant states by December 10 and mailing of cards destined for local and nearby points by December 15.

Holmquist said if the deadlines are met, patrons can expect delivery of the parcels and cards not later than Christmas Day.

Surface mail for Alaska and Hawaii not prepaid at the first-class rate should be mailed not later than December 1.

"THERE WILL be no delivery on December 25," Holmquist emphasized.

Greeting cards carrying first-class postage may be sealed and contain written messages. These are priority items and will be forwarded without additional charge or will be returned to the sender, also without additional charge, provided the return address is shown on the envelope.

The Post Office Department has announced that window service hours, for the sale of stamps and acceptance of parcel post, will be maintained all day on Saturdays, December 15 and December 22, also if the need is justified.

"IN OFFICES where no Sunday window service is normally provided," Holmquist said, "postmasters may at their discretion provide window service on Sunday, December 16."

"Such action would serve to avoid lobby congestion on the following Monday. Only necessary window service will be provided on Sunday, December 23, and none at all on Christmas Day," he said.

Holmquist said carrier delivery schedules may be arranged in some offices to provide necessary service on Sunday, December 23.

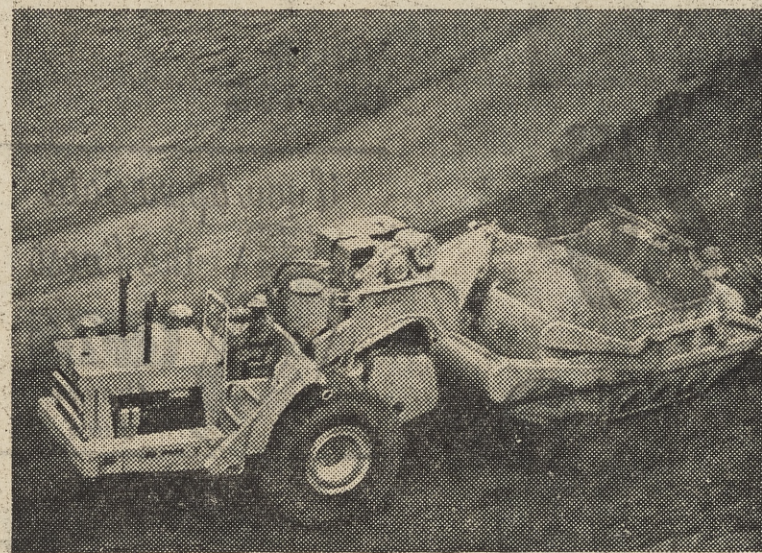

"The department assures all patrons that every piece of mail available for regular delivery shall be delivered on Monday, December 24, but only special delivery mail, gift parcels and parcels containing perishable matter will be delivered on Christmas Day," the postal official concluded.

True wisdom is to know what is best worth knowing, and to do what is best worth doing.

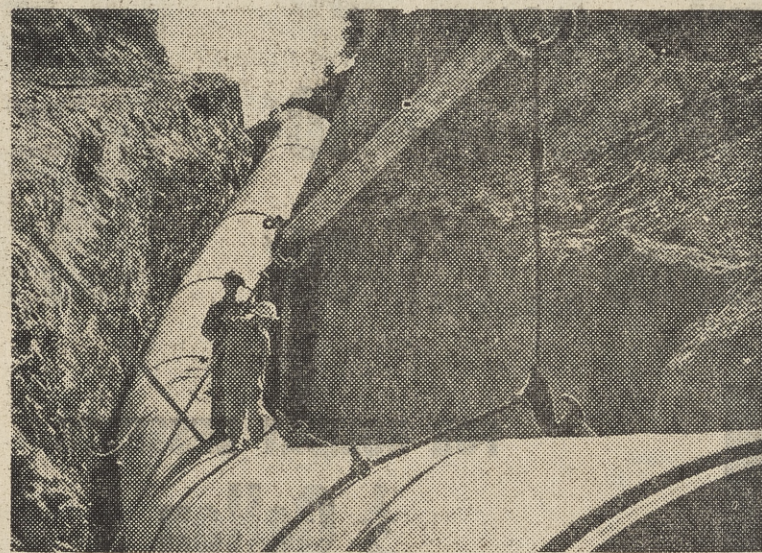

Water Bond Committee Chairman, Charles P. Howard, reports:

"Your $283-million Water Development Program has reached the half-way mark...on schedule and within budget"

"Construction work on Camanche Dam in the Sierra foothills began in April, 1962. Completion is scheduled for 1964. Camanche Reservoir, behind the dam, will add a reserve of 140-billion gallons of pure mountain water to your primary supply."

"A man my size can walk through our new 'Giant M' aqueduct. Ninety-three miles long, it will be completed early in 1963. This pipeline will bring an additional 181-million gallons of pure water into the East Bay each day."

"The 81 new filtered-water reservoirs we're building (23 are completed) will raise neighborhood storage to 830-million gallons. These local reservoirs, plus the 60 new pumping plants we're adding to the 69 now at work, assure you a continuous supply of pure water."

"We're adding 900 miles of distribution mains to your water system, with 500 miles installed to date. These, along with new filter plants now under construction, (2 have already been completed), will allow you to continue to enjoy fully-filtered pure water in your home."

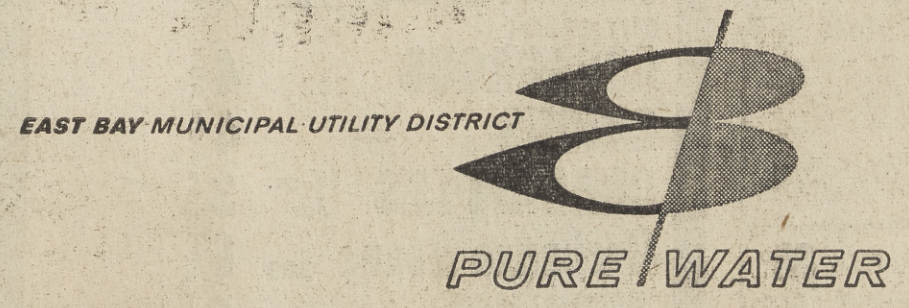

"Briones Dam, to be completed in 1963, is the largest dam in the entire Bay Area. Holding 22-billion gallons of water in storage near Orinda, Briones will increase East Bay Water's storage capacity to 55-billion gallons: nearly a year's supply."

Few men in the East Bay are as well qualified as Charles P. Howard to report on your Water Development Program. Five years ago, he headed the Citizens' Committee for Water Development.

Under committee leadership, East Bay citizens passed the $283-million bond issue which made the entire program possible.

We are pleased that Mr. Howard can report today that your massive Water Development Program is now one-half complete, on schedule, and well within budget.

Bridges, Bridges Bridges, Bridges

Whether the accelerated construction of a multitude of bridges spanning the San Francisco Bay is the answer to the increasing vehicular traffic should be examined by our top county officials, our assemblymen and state senator.

Will these bridges solve the problem? Will they be worth the expense?

The reason we ask these basic questions is that we are not sure that they are being asked and good answers are being provided.

The obtaining of bridges in specific areas of the Bay has become a political football, where the local representatives can say, "Look! I got you a bridge! Remember that in the next election!"

"More power to him IF it can be said after objective study that all the bridges planned now and pending in the future will not do more harm than good to our Bay and its development.

Considered now are a bridge from San Leandro to Sierra Point between Brisbane and South San Francisco, and another from either Alameda or Bay Farm Island to Potrero Point, near Third and Army Streets, San Francisco. Others loom ahead.

The passage of the rapid transit bonds may call for a thorough rehaul of all thinking favoring the new bridges.

We should consider the investment involved in the financing, construction and maintenance of each new bridge, the job it may do, and whether its absence would be a detriment to the area involved.

There is also time for thought—with the conversion of the Bay Bridge to one way traffic at upper and lower levels, and the coming construction of rapid transit.

Future Bay Jungle?

(SEE EDITORIAL)

A Few Votes Decided Transit

If you sometimes think that in an election your votes doesn't count for much, look at the local statistics assembled after the hair-breadth passage of the three-county rapid transit bond issue.

Almost 700,000 persons voted for or against the transit bonds, but the "yes" votes were ahead of the required 60 per cent by such a narrow margin that some 5000 votes made the difference between passage and failure.

In our own central communities, almost 33,000 residents voted in favor of the bonds, and some 14,803 voted against them. This includes Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, Pleasant Hill, Alamo and nearby areas.

THE PLURALITY in favor of the bonds were more than 18,000 in our own communities, indicating that if there had been a general feeling against transit in our area, the bond issue for three counties would have failed.

Officials of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District credit The Sun's recommendation in favor of the bonds with swinging many central county votes.

We believe and believe now that the people need rapid transit and as soon as possible, and that the proposed plans are as good as any likely to be proposed at some future date when costs and other obstacles will be larger.

Now that the bond issue has passed (there is a recount effort underway at the time of this writing, however), we also hope and expect that the district's board of directors and officials will remember they are part of a public, tax-supported body, and will retain their past responsiveness to local wishes and opinion.

IT TAKES open discussion and receptiveness to public wishes in order to pass a bond issue, and the same is needed for a logical development of the transit system in a healthy climate of public good will and cooperativeness.

Incidentally, congratulations to the transit people. It will be a long fight, and a close one. We are glad the central county did its part to help pass the bonds.

Just Voting Is Not Enough

In case you have forgotten due to the length of the November 6 ballot, you have elected several of those who represent you most directly in the shaping of state and national policies.

These include United States Senator Thomas Kuchel, Congressman John Baldwin, Assemblyman Jerome Waldie of the Tenth District and Assemblyman John Knox of the Eleventh District.

NOW DON'T just forget about them until the next time the electioneering begins.

If these men are the kind of people we want in public office (and The Sun believes they are), they want to know how you as an individual feel about many specific measures and issues.

They make the rounds here in an effort to learn local sentiment, but their time is limited. Don't wait for them to take the initiative. You contact them!

Incidentally, Senator Kuchel can be reached by writing to him at the U.S. Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C.

CONGRESSMAN Baldwin receives letters at the House Office Building, Washington, D.C., and he also has local offices in Richmond and Martinez.

Both Assemblyman Waldie, an Antioch resident, and Assemblyman Knox, a Richmond resident, receive mail at the State Capitol Building, Sacramento, Calif.

It's as simple as that. No complicated addresses to remember.

And don't forget State Senator George Miller, Jr., who was not up for election this time. Write him at the State Capitol Building, Sacramento.

A Tip of the Hat

There was a lot of talk in the past few weeks about the candidates and the issues, and a lot of talk about the voters.

But not much talk about another important group of people—those workers who manned the polls, often from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. and longer.

They served cheerfully, and it was a tough job. Hats off to our polling booth workers! They should all have medals!

Let's Really Get Down To Basics!

By BERNICE SCHARLACH

Dr. Max Rafferty, running for State Superintendent of Schools, campaigned on a platform of getting back to fundamentals — more emphasis on the three Rs.

Now that he's elected, I have a few ideas on where he could begin.

Take this MSGS business. Stands for School Mathematics Study Group, a new basis for teaching math. (NOT, as the kids say, Some Mad Scientist Goofed.)

IN ORDER to acquaint parents with the intricacies of the system, schools in our area are offering courses so that parents can learn it. The better to do our kids' homework.

Over 90 parents turned out last week at Strandwood Elementary School in Pleasant Hill to sign up for this course. Fine.

But how about a prerequisite course, How about a course in SAAS, Dr. Rafferty?

IF YOU really want to get back to fundamentals, I respectfully suggest some instruction in Sideways Adding And Subtracting. This is absolutely basic — for everyone who uses or ever hopes to use a checkbook.

The possibilities for error in subtracting on the diagonal is endless — I know, from experience. Try to forestall an error by checking through addition, and you just get cross-eyed.

Modern banking is hopelessly old-fashioned in spite of all that ERMA electronics jazz. The only jotting space they allow you in your checkbook is on the blotter! How many people do you know who dip into inkwells?

Then, Dr. Rafferty, if you really mean it about fundamentals, how about a reading course in IUTB, the Intelligent Use of the Telephone Book?

THE SCHOOL system spends hours of time teaching kids about Alphabetical Order and the logic of filing and cataloging.

If these are supposed to apply to telephone books, forget it!

Suppose, for instance you lived in Alamo and your house was on fire. So you look up the number of the fire station. Under A for Alamo? Don't be silly!

It's under C for City Offices! BUT IT'S not a city, you say. If you couldn't find it under A for Alamo, an educated guess might be to look under C for County, or F for Fire.

Some logic — the same kind of thinking that gave us all-digit dialing — lists it under C for City Offices.

So is it the first one under City Offices Alamo does begin with A.

No, Virginia, it's sandwiched between Danville City Offices (also not a city).

BY THE TIME you find your number, you've probably lost your house.

The Yellow Pages are worse. They nearly lost me a husband last month. It was during the October deluge, when I was forced to abandon my car in the Orinda underpass after that became a lake and my car refused to become amphibious.

Somehow, through sheer luck, I managed to find the phone number of my automobile club in the yellow pages, and told them about my car. They promised to remove it when the tides receded.

When I struggled home—on foot—my husband's first concern was where was the car. To what garage would it eventually be taken? Still wet and shivery, I tried to duplicate my earlier success and find that phone number. Under Automobile Clubs? Under National Auto Club? Under Service Clubs? Under Orinda?

Some time later, after it was definitely established once again that I was not irresponsible, did not have to turn in my driver's license if I couldn't take better care of a car, and that I did, indeed, have some appreciation of hard-earned money, we found the listing.

THE NATIONAL Automobile Club Emergency Road Service is listed between Monument Auto Service and Oldsmobile Motors under the general heading of Towing. Under T.

Please Dr. Rafferty, before you train our children in higher math and accelerated reading, let's equip them for the basic challenges of daily living.

Under The Sun Is Travel Worth It? Here Is One Viewpoint

Editor's Note: Sun Associate Publisher Eleanor Silverman wrote this while aboard the Matson Line's "Monterey," enroute to Papeete, Tahiti.

By ELEANOR SILVERMAN

Papeete, Tahiti—Travel is a bargain!

As the Monterey pulled out of the pier in San Francisco, breaking the multi-colored streamers of serpentine connecting the lucky passengers with the long-faced friends on shore—I thought, this is one of the travel memories which will stay with me for a lifetime.

The friends gradually became an indistinguishable grey blob, and the skyline of San Francisco and the Golden Gate bridge loomed into the foreground.

Of course, travel costs money, but what other investment can guarantee a lifetime of enjoyment? You can buy a fur coat or a home or a car, but all these things could possibly wear out or be destroyed or stolen.

The image of a beautiful view, whether it be castles on the Rhine, the beach at Waikiki, or Mount Fuji—can be recalled at a moment's notice, any time, any place.

Preparing is fun

Then, too, you can count the months spent in preparation for a trip as part of the travel bargain. Books and pamphlets about Tahiti and the South Pacific were suddenly transformed from dull geography and travel literature to exciting accounts of real places when I found out that I would be sailing on the Monterey to Bora Bora and Tahiti. The other lucky passengers will stay on to New Zealand, Australia, Fiji, Samoa, and Hawaii.

What about languages? There's a subject we hated in school—grammar, conjugations, translations, spelling, accents to the left and accents to the right.

It is a different story with the language records which are available now. You can listen to the phrases you are actually going to use to order food, ask directions, or simply get acquainted. The records really do the job.

If you play them while you are gardening, washing the dishes, or cleaning the house, the phrases automatically come to your rescue when you land in a foreign country. All you have to do is find someone who "talks your records."

A new meaning

When it comes to the educational value of a trip, you can't beat the impressions of actually seeing a foreign country and getting to know its people. Meaningless words of description suddenly become comprehensible. A paragraph skimmed over before a trip, takes on new meaning.

Perhaps, the outlay of money for a two or three-week vacation seems out of proportion for the time of enjoyment on the trip.

But when you add in the months of exciting anticipation, the education gained in the preparation in language, history and geography, the indestructible memory to say nothing of the trip itself—then you know ... Travel is a bargain!

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor,

I've always been a newspaper reader, probably because of Peanuts and Li'l Abner, and for most of my thirteen years in Walnut Creek I've been reading three dailies and two Sundays.

Plus The Sun on Fridays and a few shoppers.

Counting the Sundays as two papers and the shoppers as a half each (because I'm not authorized to read the food market ads) this amounts to 25 papers a week.

Figuring three-quarters of a pound each, I shuffle through a half ton of newspapers a year.

Or, if laid end to end, would reach Dorothy Parker.

Day after day and week after week I read of what others are doing at home and abroad, until on page 5 of The Sun of October 26, lower right hand corner, there I was, clearly imprinted in the same size type you use for Kennedy, Khrushchev and Jayne Mansfield.

There I was, crisp and clear, "Mort Blake," and even a plug for Photo Center (special this week on kippers and imported salami).

There I was, for all to see. And I didn't even see it.

Mournfully,
MORT BLAKE

TRANSIT

Dear Editor:

We want to express our personal warmhearted gratitude and appreciation for The Sun's help in winning the Rapid Transit issue for the people of the Bay Area.

Your newspaper has consistently shown a high standard of civic responsibility, and your support of this vitally needed step forward for our three counties has served well in insuring a solution to our traffic congestion problem.

We would like to express also our thanks to Norman Colby, and other members of your staff who did so much to make effective, in editorials and news stories, The Sun's support.

The citizens of the Bay Area have won a great victory. We should all be proud of ourselves.

DANA MURDOCK,
Chairman,
Contra Costa County
Citizens for Rapid Transit

Letters to The Editor

REPUBLICANS

Dear Editor:

Though your media I should like to express my appreciation to the many Republican party workers in Contra Costa County for their untiring efforts during the last political campaign.

This message is directed to them.

The election is over — we lost! What does this mean — besides the heartache, emotional let-down — a feeling of loneliness and despair.

How can we equate the many hours of work, labor and diligence to the fact of our defeat.

Our analysis, as Republicans, of the current developments in the California political scene should not be the abandonment of our fundamental philosophy and rights of man, but rather a re-affirmation of those ideals — to concur when it is right and to criticize when we feel it is wrong.

A vociferous minority can in fact become a potent force for the betterment of all and if we, as Republicans, maintain our strength of ideals and purpose as individuals and as a party, that minority can through example become a majority.

SAM CONTI

Chairman, Contra
Costa County Republican
Central Committee

We Like It Here...

A Bird on the Plate is worth two on the floor--

By MARIE MONAHAN

HOLD STILL, my fine defrosted friend ...

I BEG of you, I won't pretend

That I'm accustomed to your face or gobble

Or on some farm I saw you waddle by

Or strut your stuff or proudly preen

Your fine tail-feathers ...

NO, if perchance we'd met before

I'd not be wrestling with you on the floor.

BUT since as strangers we must meet

(You ARE to be our festive treat!)

I plead with you. Hold firm, don't squirm

While I perform the ritual of Making you a tempting victual and

If in cold & slippery repose

You do a nosedive 'cross the room,

It means a lot of extra fuss & muss

When all I mean to do is truss ... & groom.

FROM bowl of fragrant parsley, sage,

Onions, breadcrumbs, giblets, seasoning,

You'll soon resemble Gourmet page

If you'll oblige with simple reasoning.

HOLD STILL! Your buttered back makes

You as slippery as an eel, alack!

Alas, alack, elusive as a seal

And makes me feel at fault ...

HERE comes the salt! A dash of pepper now.

Good Tom! 'Tis with these touches I endow

YOU, favorite fare of Thanksgiving ...

I promise, too, when you are roasted,

Baked to crisp rich brown & toasted,

YOU shall have the finest platter,

But promise ME that you'll not splatter

Clattering from oven onto floor

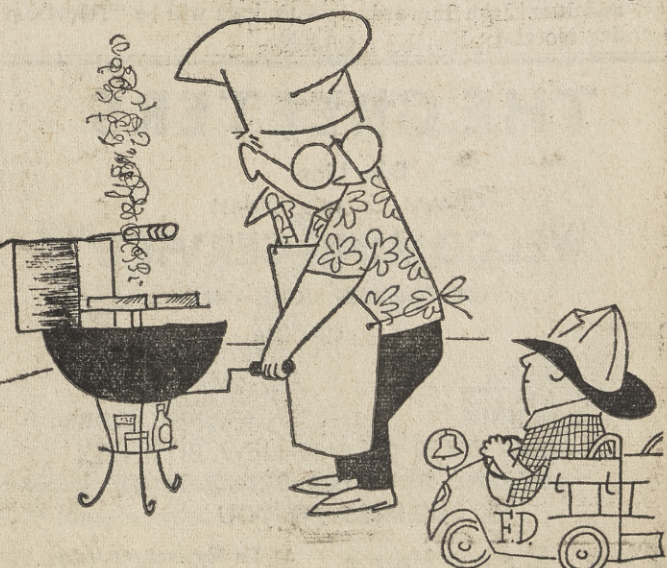

To ruin your resplendent state.

Before I show you to my guests, (Oh, I implore)

PLEASE hold still upon the plate!!!

typing, addressing, and assembling the kits for the marchers. They are now acting as area captains, seeing that each marcher has her supplies and collecting the kits after the march is over.

According to Mrs. John Rousset, president of the juniors, the club chose MD as their philanthropy this year because "those of us with healthy children are glad of the opportunity to help those who are not as fortunate."

Muscular Dystrophy Drive

Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club is working on the final phases of volunteer work for this year's March for Muscular Dystrophy. The fund drive will be tomorrow and Sunday.

Under the direction of Mrs. George Curtis, office supervisor, the ladies have been working in the local MD office and at home.

The jobs they have filled included setting up the areas and districts to be covered,

Larks Elect '63 Officers

The Lafayette Larks, a unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, met at the home of their president, Mrs. John Menz on Reliez Valley Road this month to elect their officers for the year 1963.

Mrs. Menz was chosen to lead the group again as was Mrs. Harley Cook as treasurer.

New officers are: Mrs. John Helm, vice president; Mrs. Hal Jensen corresponding secretary, and Mrs. John Howard, recording secretary.

A joint board meeting of old and new officers will be held in December at the home of Mrs. Charles Franklin to discuss plans for the coming year. Interest will center on plans for the annual mardi gras ball, February 23 at Castlewood Country Club.

Mrs. Jack Snelgrove, chairman for the event has announced that the theme for this year's hats will be "Television Shows."

Silver Tea For AFS To Be Thursday

The Lafayette American Field Service Committee, will hold their annual Silver Tea, Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Miller, 3583 Boyer Circle.

This year the honored guests are: Miss Ruth Dyer, school advisor from Acalanes; Mrs. Thomas Mika, district representative, Orinda; Mrs. Charles Greenwood, regional representative, Oakland; the two exchange students attending Acalanes, Maigualda Sornes Venezuela, Jonathan Lamb, England; and Kathy Brinkerhoff, Acalanes senior who spent the summer in Turkey.

The tea is an annual event to introduce to the community the purposes of the American Field Service and, to the exchange students living here.

Holiday Show Is Enjoyed By W. C. Club

Art and Garden Section of the Women's Club of Walnut Creek toured the holiday decorations program in Oakland recently.

The following members and their guests enjoyed the show, followed by lunch: Mesdames Neleta H. Priger, J. C. Lyons, William J. Walker, Ivar Lindberg, Delmar Brunsard, G. L. Gehlert, George A. Peters, Nathan Levy, George H. Wheatley, Barney Gilbert, Ernest Holman, A. H. Schaefer, H. B. Meinhardt, Eugene Bodway, Charles Spears, Edward C. Dundon, H. B. Keller, D. Mirk, Cecil Larsen, C. T. Reichhold, H. K. Dalgleish, A. O. Cooperider, Melvin Jory, Jr., Louis Lelor and William D. Kahrs.

Club members participating in the event included Mrs. Lincoln B. Grayson, who displayed a table setting, and Mrs. Peter Jarratt and Mrs. Charles W. Dennis, who worked in an art-in-action booth making roses out of paper and displaying their use.

HUMMINGBIRD UNIT of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center recently had a fashion-show luncheon at the Claremont Hotel. Modeling a hand-jeweled chiffon is model Diane Davis for La Femme Fashions.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS Mrs. Richard Shackell of Orinda, left, and Mrs. Clifton Moore of Walnut Creek point to poster showing starting points for bus transportation to the special series of concerts offered for the 1962-63 season by the San Francisco Symphony Association. Included are two series especially planned for Contra Costa music-lovers.

Hop a Bus to Symphony

The San Francisco Symphony Association announces the choice of two symphony orchestra concert series, with chartered bus transportation, for the enjoyment of Contra Costa residents during the 1962-63 season.

Of special interest to this area is the "Behind the Hills" series, which offers a program of concerts on five Friday afternoons during the winter and spring months. There will be a bus leaving from Walnut Creek and another from Lafayette, with a stop at Orinda only.

In addition the "Behind the Hills" series, the symphony association offers, chartered bus transportation to all 19 programs of the regular symphony season. This bus will leave Walnut Creek at 10 a.m., with pickup stops at Lafayette, Orinda and Berkeley, for an early arrival at Union Square in San Francisco, where passengers may shop and lunch at their leisure. The bus picks up again in time for the concert at the Opera House, returning to Contra Costa immediately after the program.

Mrs. Stuart Campbell of Orinda is regional chairman of the Symphony Association's East Bay Women's Public Interest Committee.

She is assisted in the Orinda-Lafayette by Mesdames L. O. Merrill, Stuart Henderson, George Corwin and Richard Shackell of Orinda, and E. F. Cardin, Jr., Robert Ramm and L. G. Etherington of Lafayette.

Mrs. Clifton Moore of Walnut Creek is chairman for the Diablo Valley area, assisted by Mrs. Samuel Abbot and Mrs. Laurence Curtola of Diablo, Miss Helen Burling of Concord, Mrs. Charles Price, Jr. of Walnut Creek, Mrs. Walter Ormsby of Martinez and Mrs. George Miller of Pittsburg.

There is still time to make reservations for the opening December 7 program for the five concerts in the "Behind the Hills" series and the complete schedule of 19 concerts.

Those interested may contact Mrs. Campbell at 254-4527 or Mrs. Moore at 934-3131, or any of the committee members. Bus transportation is included in the price for the series.

'Allegro Ball' Beckons Music-Lovers Tonight

Famous popular singer Connie Haines will be guest entertainer for the Oakland Symphony Guild's "Allegro Ball" at the Claremont Hotel tonight.

Many east-of-the-tunnel residents have made reservations for the ball. They will make dramatic entrances through the Arch de Triomphe into the Garden Room, which will be transformed into a Paris street.

Ralph Edwards is flying from Hollywood to emcee the benefit. Honored guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Friml, and Lloyd Lindroth, outstanding solo harpist.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Copenhagen of Orinda and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wehmeier of Lafayette will be a local quartet in a party hosted by Mrs. Joseph A. Penkins of Piedmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip D. Bush of Orinda will entertain with buffet supper preceding the ball.

The Bushes and their guests will go on to the black-tie gala which will benefit the Oakland Symphony Orchestra. Guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. John Goldeen of Orinda, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Oppenheim of Piedmont, Albert Forster of Oakland and Mrs. Dorothy Hyde of Boston.

Reservations for the ball may be made by calling the Sherman Clay box office in Oakland, or at Breuner's box office in Oakland or Berkeley.

Sorority Pledges Squeal

With first mid-terms, the excited squeals of pledging a sorority turned to silent study. Among the many girls who joined a house this fall are the following:

Karen Fernsten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fernsten, of 6 Woodcrest Drive in Orinda, was initiated into the Fresno State Chapter of Kappa Gamma recently, in the sorority house. Following the ceremonies, she was honored, with other initiates, at a dinner at the Dester Inn, Fresno.

Karen is a sophomore elementary education major. Lynne Alasia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Alasia, 172 Glen Court, Walnut Creek, was pledged to Kappa Alpha Theta recently at the University of California at Santa Barbara. Lynne is a freshman.

Susan Field Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will C. Hall of Reliez Valley Road, Lafayette was initiated into Sigma Kappa at Oregon State University, Corvallis.

Bonnie Ellen Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Robinson of La Casita Lane, Lafayette, was initiated into Sigma Kappa at Chico State college.

Among the 31 pledges of Sigma Kappa at the University of California, Berkeley, are Roberta Peters, Andree Bruzzone, Marion Jones, and Claudia Rees.

Roberta is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peters, Springhill Road, Lafayette. Andree Bruzzone is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bruzzone of Entrada Verde, Alamo. Marion Jones is the daughter of the John Paul Jones of Alamo. Both Andree and Marion are graduates of San Ramon High School.

Claudia Rees is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd D. Rees, 394 Camino Sobrante, Orinda. Among the 25 pledges of Sigma Kappa at San Jose State College are Karen Nelson and Bonnie Willes. Bonnie is the daughter of Mrs. Edith Willes of Van Tassel Lane, Orinda. Bonnie is a graduate of Miramonte High School.

Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Nelson, of Alamo.

Karen is a San Ramon graduate.

At Washington State University, Pullman, Wash., Elizabeth A. Blossom of Orinda pledged Kappa Alpha Theta. She is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Chauncey E. Blossom, 86 Estates Drive, Orinda.

From Salem, Ore. comes the news that Sharon Calavan pledged Delta Gamma at Willamette University. Sharon is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. C. Corwin Calavan, 12 Via Las Cruces, Orinda. Twenty of the 83 girls who pledged Willamette's five sororities went Delta Gamma.

Vici Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Johnson, 3908 Los Arabis, Lafayette, pledged Alpha Delta Pi sorority on the University of New Mexico campus, where she is a freshman.

Vici accepted the bid during recent fall rush activities held at UNM.

Seventeen national sororities at the University of Oregon pledged 389 co-eds during formal fall rush activities on the Eugene campus.

Students from Orinda who pledged and their sororities are: Kappa Kappa Gamma—Mary Baker; Alpha Chi Omega—Ann Hallstone.

It's A Great Big Wide Wonderful Whirl of Romance

Among the many beautiful wedding ceremonies to take place recently with bride or groom (or both) from the central county, are the six following:

JOHANSON-RASMUSSEN
Barbara Nixon Johanson became the bride of Conrad Ky Rasmussen at the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church, Lafayette.

White gladiolus decorated the church altar. The Rev. Benson Mack performed the nuptial service.

Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johanson, 1051 Upper Happy Valley Road, Lafayette. The reception was at her parents' home.

Conrad is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Rasmussen, 3941 Los Arabis, Lafayette.

Barbara's gown had a full, short skirt of silk organza over taffeta. The bodice was white lace. Her veil was held by a pearl crown.

The bridal bouquet was of butterfly orchids and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Dee Garfield was the bride's only attendant. Her gown was of pale pink organza over taffeta. Dee carried pink carnations.

Russell Legg was best man. Ushers were Bradford and Ralph Johanson, the bride's brother; and Larry Dodds, the groom's brother-in-law.

Barbara graduated from Acalanes High School. She attended Diablo Valley College and Chico State College.

Conrad also graduated from Acalanes and went to DVC. He is employed by Cole Steel Equipment.

The couple honeymooned in Carmel. They are now at home at 3303 Las Huertas, Lafayette.

CHAMBERLAIN-SULLIVAN
Eugenia Gayle Chamberlain became Mrs. Larry Dee Sullivan in a small, double-ring 4 p.m. ceremony at the Mills College chapel.

Bishop Edward Wells of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints performed the service before the couple's family and a few close friends.

Eugenia graduated from Acalanes High School and the University of California at Los Angeles. She also attended the University of Utah and Mills College.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loy Chamberlain. Her father, a prominent Oakland architect and past president of the Lafayette Library Board, gave her in marriage.

Larry is a sophomore at the University of California Dental School in San Francisco. He is a member of Delta Sigma Delta, national dental fraternity.

Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sullivan, 1130 Walker Avenue, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Edward A. Atkinson was unable to be matron of honor because of an automobile accident. The groom's sister, Mrs. Stephen Reed of Walnut Creek, kindly consented to "stand in" as honor matron.

Camille Chamberlain was her sister's maid of honor. Camille is a senior at U.C., Berkeley.

Best man was Donald Lee, Walnut Creek. Mervin Rasmussen was usher.

Another sister of the bride, Rebekah Loy Chamberlain, was organist.

Engenia's gown of peau de soie, was designed and made by the bride, as was the butterfly veil. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of fleur d'amour, stephanotis and cymbidium.

After a honeymoon to Mesa, Arizona, the Sullivans returned to a San Francisco apartment.

Larry is continuing his dental studies. The bride is training at Jackson's, Kaiser Center, as an interior designer. She is a member

ROTH-DILIO

At a noon nuptial mass, Dianne May Roth became the wife of Michael Raymond Dilio. The service was conducted by Father William O'Donnell at St. Jarlath's Catholic Church, Oakland.

Dianne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McKie Wing Roth, 3225 Glenside Drive, Lafayette. A garden reception at the Roth home followed the church service.

Michael is the son of Mrs. Michael Dilio of Oakland and the late Mr. Dilio.

The bride wore the illusion net veil and crown which her mother had worn 25 years before. Dianne's gown was of lace and silk peau de soie. Princess style, it was floor length and had a train. The bridal bouquet was of gardenias and lily-of-the-valley.

Joanne Roth was maid of honor for her sister. Mrs. Cyril Vierra was her sister-in-law's matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Pat Brown, Judy Whalen and Mrs. McKie W. Roth, Jr., another sister-in-law.

Best man was Robert W. Dodd. Ushers were McKie W. Roth, Jr., brother of the bride; Cyril R. Vierra, the groom's brother-in-law; Bill Homan, Pleasant Hill; and Don Lipert, Walnut Creek.

Dianne graduated from Acalanes High School and attended Stephens College. She is now attending Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo, majoring in elementary education.

Michael also graduated from Acalanes and will graduate from Cal Poly next June. He will be commissioned as a second lieutenant in the army upon graduation.

MARTINO-BAIRD

Two Lafayette families were joined by marriage in St. Perpetua's Catholic Church, Lafayette. Pauline Frances Martino became the bride of Gerrie Steven Baird in a service performed by Father John Quinn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Martino, 1319 Martino Road, Lafayette. Gerrie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Baird, 3300 Phillips Road, Lafayette.

After the church rites, a reception was held at the Alamo Women's Club.

Pauline's wedding gown, an Alfred Angelo original, was of white silk, peau de soie. It was full length with long sleeves, sweetheart neckline and long chapel train.

Her full, short veil was held by a pearl crown. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of stephanotis and white butterfly orchids.

Virginia Bonzani was maid of honor. Linda Pessano and Diane Peabody were bridesmaids.

Their gowns were emerald green full length peau de soie. They wore small, veiled, matching chapeaux. Their flowers were cascaded Talisman roses.

Gerrie's gown was his brother-in-law's best man. Nate Lincoln and Ralph Baird, the groom's brother, were ushers.

Pauline graduated from Acalanes High School and Dental Nurses College of San Francisco. She attended the University of San Francisco for a semester.

Gerrie also graduated from Acalanes. He is continuing his study of architecture at the University of California, Berkeley.

The young couple returned to a home in Oakland after a Carmel honeymoon.

KINNEY-HANEY

Marianne Lee Kinney became the bride of William Edward Haney, Jr. at a 2 p.m. double-ring ceremony at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Walnut Creek. The Rev. Joseph E. McLaughlin officiated.

Marianne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Anthony

Kinney, Glen View Road, Walnut Creek.

Bill is the son of the senior William Edward Haney of Ross.

Mrs. Robert L. Howard was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Barbara James and Mrs. Donald Wayne Lais, both of Walnut Creek.

Best man was Bartley Young of Yuma, Arizona. Ushers were Jim Phillips, San Francisco; and Bob Kinney, Walnut Creek.

Marianne attended the University of California at Santa Barbara where she was a Kappa Alpha Theta.

Bill attended U.C. at both the Berkeley and Santa Barbara campuses. His fraternity was Pi Kappa Alpha.

Organist was Mrs. John F. Strand.

Marianne's gown was worn by her grandmother, the late Mrs. W. K. Tate, for her wedding in 1896. Ivory satin, it had a bertha of pointed de Venise lace caught with pearl and crystal pendant. It had long sleeves, high neckline and gored skirt with sweeping train.

The illusion veil was applied with lace medallions. It was held by a crown of lace.

The bride carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

Her attendants wore avocado chiffon over citrus taffeta street-length dresses with headpieces of matching flat bows. The matron of honor carried a crescent of coral carnations; bridesmaids, crescents of yellow carnations.

The newlyweds are living in Pullman, Washington where Bill will be a teaching assistant while working for his master's degree at Washington State University. Marianne is continuing her studies there.

WHITE-FREEMAN

Valerie White and Stephen Philip Freeman exchanged vows at San Ramon Valley Congregational Church. Officiating was Dr. Michel Vallon.

Valerie, who had been residing in Oakland, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Earle White of St. Louis, Mo.

Stephen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Edward Freeman, 390 Lovern Heights Road, Alamo.

Valerie attended Washington University of St. Louis where she was a Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Stephen attended the University of California, Berkeley.

The bride's brocade gown had a delicate white chrysanthemum motif. It was fashioned with three-quarter sleeves and a scoop neckline. Her headpiece had a shoulder-length veil. Valerie wore a single strand of pearls.

Her bouquet was a cascade of white carnation and stephanotis with maidenhair fern.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Kurt W. Melchior of San Francisco.

Best man for his brother was Michael B. Freeman of Albany. Ushers were Frederic E. White, St. Louis, Mo.; Lawrence M. Elson, San Francisco; Bruce N. Crawford, Walnut Creek; and David L. Graff, Walnut Creek.

The reception was at the Alamo Women's Club.

The young couple is making their home in Oakland.

Community Concert Tea Launches Concert Series

Mrs. Peg Winters of Orinda recently gave a "Community Concert Tea" to acquaint old and new residents of the area with the county's local community concert series.

Four attractions will be included. The series opened at Miramonte High School yesterday with "Sujata and Asoka," East Indian dancers who give native dances of Japan, China and Tibet.

Subsequent concerts will include: William Warfield, great negro baritone, will sing at Del Valle High School, January 31.

Whittmore and Lowe, world-renowned duo-pianists will play at Las Lomas High School in February.

The well-known Tuscon Boys' Chorus will appear in March at Del Valle High.

Mrs. Philip Bancroft, Jr. and Mrs. Virginia Blair Menges poured.

Daniels to Address Diablo Garden Club

'Babes in Toyland' See Christmas Cargo Preview

By MARIE MONAHAN

LIKE A BUNCH of Babes in Toyland, gala-night guests at Christmas Cargoes' Preview last Friday night at Jack London Hall got their first peekaboos into Santa's pack and started the holiday ball rolling, buying first Christmas gifts.

In fact, from the number of elegant fashions modeled by the most elegant mannequins (Junior Leaguers, wives of lawyers, judges) at this Legal Aid Society benefit, it wouldn't surprise the old boy at all if he gets a few orders for some of the same on his Dear Santa list.

THE dolls were out in full array, these being the bevy of beautiful ladies who took to the raised ramp in the most regal of fashions from the racks and rooms of Irene Sargent's salon.

A combo played appropriate background medleys while columnist Bill Fiset of Orinda arrived on scene in a surrey with the fringe on top to commentate the show.

And maybe it was a winning combination of extraordinary styles, sleek pretty models and Fiset's witty gift of gab, but the audience watched and listened paying rapt attention to the show on the fashion runway. Sometimes it doesn't happen that way.

The Thomas Gibsons of Sleepy Hollow (Connie was preview chairman and wore a black chiffon strapless floor-length gown) dined beforehand at Frere Jacques restaurant with the Bill Fises (Marian's gown in muted shades of persimmon chiffon a standout), the Michael David Cummings of Lafayette also in this dinner-table group that included Oaklanders and Piedmonters.

Betty wore white chiffon topped with silver-lame and as last year's preview chairman, lent a helpful veteran hand in the opening night arrangements department as assistant chairman.

Sally Peterson, (Betty's twin sister) was one of the most outstanding models, wearing the gamut from town costume to glamorous "at home" garb. Sally got her biggest applause for a wintry coat number of nubby red wool lined with Australian opossum, furry hat to match. (All the hats were fabulous and huge, some towering like double beehives).

Looking like a vertebrae jeweled ornament, Gretchen Gleim of Sleepy Hollow modeled a gray-silver silk opera gown beaded from neckline to hemline. . . . With it, a dramatic sweep of a matching coat. And one of the fanciest coats, Oriental-inspired and resembling a grey cocoon, Fiset announced, was made from eyelashes. "Think of all those people donating their eyelashes!"

IN THE GAY FOYER, decked for the merry time and the onslaught of shoppers who bought from gay red booths through last Tuesday, were two sentinels of the season standing guard at the entry to the main room. For most arriving guests, it was the first sight of Christmas trees since last year and these were flowered all over with white tissue roses and frost-white doves.

Mel and Helen Neilsen (she in bright red) arrived with the Jack Snows (Virginia making mental notes since fashions from her store, Virginia Hammond's of Orinda, were to bow on stage Sunday afternoon). . . . Carey Indig swishing by in white fringe and pink satin pumps. . . . Thelma Patterson shouldering furs over a Triger gown of black and gold brocade, a tiny clutch bag to match. . . . Cita and Arthur Rude, over from San Francisco for the evening, she seeing many old suburban friends.

Floor length gowns were making a comeback (Hooray!) but going one further was Diane Hernandez, statuesque fashion coordinator who adapted a black matakari hat to her black gown. . . . The Del Courtneys arrived home from Mexico just in time for Del to do his Music Maestro, pleasing for dancing until late. . . .

Visitor Leaves

Mrs. Florence M. O'Connor left recently for her home in Green Bay, Wisconsin, after a three months' stay with her parents and sisters in Concord and Pleasant Hill.

POODLE aristocracy will vie for honors at a show tomorrow in San Mateo, sponsored by the Poodle Club of Central California. Mrs. Harry Plath of Orinda holds "The Doctor," international champion. Albert Wahl of Lafayette will be one of the judges.

Of every 100 Americans who die of cancer in 1963, the American Cancer Society estimates that 54 will be men and 46 will be women.

CCD Finale Tonight

The Pleasant Hill Rams, bidding for undisputed ownership of second place in the Contra Costa Division-DVAL, hope to continue their late season momentum as they go against the Mt. Diablo Red Devils tonight in the season curtain closer at Concord.

After dropping their first two league encounters, the Rams have put a three-game winning streak together, and now threaten to evict the Red Devils from not only league contention, but from runner-up honors.

Over on the other side of Kirker Pass, Antioch and Pittsburg will meet in their traditional

Contra Costa

	W	L	T	P	S	P	A
Antioch	4	0	1	94	18
Mt. Diablo	3	1	1	44	19
Pittsburg	2	1	2	40	28
Pleasant Hill	3	2	0	65	63
Pacifica	2	2	1	44	52
Clayton Valley	1	3	1	19	57
College Park	0	6	0	14	74

to settle two ties in the league, being unable to tie the column in league play.

Dave Clark, Ram halfback who ran for 141 yards last week against the College Park Falcons, will carry the biggest portion of the Pleasant Hill attack tonight in the Mt. Diablo encounter.

Vic Mann, will share the running duties with Clark.

Directing the Pleasant Hill attack will be John Dotson, one of the "come through" players of the year.

Dotson has kept the Ram offense in high gear. At the same time his passing has been well above average. Dotson hit on five out of eight passes last week for a total of 83 yards.

THE PLEASANT HILL line has done yeoman work all season, but will meet one of their biggest tests in the Mt. Diablo aggregation. Singled out for outstanding play in last week's action were Bill Brown and Tim Conger and Rick Nobles.

Mt. Diablo will be in an ugly mood having been all but knocked out of contention for league honors last week by Pittsburg. What hopes they still harbor of gaining a share of the title rest on beating the Rams tonight.

Mt. Diablo will place their chances of getting a share of the title on their ground game, carrying the brunt of the ground attack will be Mike Schomaker and Dennis Jones.

The Red Devils have been unable to move the ball through the air with any consistency this year, a fact that hurt them badly in the encounter with Pitt last week.

DEFENSIVELY, this is a characteristic Coach Hart Fairclough contingent. The Red Devils have been very stingy in pass-out points. Mt. Diablo's record of giving up but 26 points in league play is topped only by Antioch's 24 encounters.

The traditional battle between Antioch and Pittsburg takes on local interest in that a Pittsburg victory is required, along with a Mt. Diablo win for the Red Devils to climb back on the perch they had shared until last week.

As with any "Bog Game", it is a good idea to throw the book on past performances out the window. Both teams will be pointing for this one, if just for the pleasure of beating the other guy.

Antioch will go with their fine combination of a big aggressive forward wall and classy backfield. The backfield has featured the play of Ron Morelli, Ron Edwards, Jim Fluty and Rich Gual all season long.

Guard Mike Pirrozoli has been the key figure in what many observers feel is one of the finest lines in Northern California prep ranks. The Panther line has time and time again stifled any illusions to grandeur opposing teams might have had.

The Pitt Buccaneers have been hobbled all season long with injuries to key players, particularly, Al Lea, their All League back of last year.

HOWEVER, on the basis of their effort against Mt. Diablo last week, they appeared to be in shape for an all-out effort.

Clayton Valley having endured their toughest year in football, will endeavor to throw back the invading Pacifica Spartans and end the season on a winning note.

To accomplish this, the prime Eagle objective will be to contain Spartan quarterback, Andy Rivera.

Rivera, passing from a variety of offensive lineups, has shown himself to be one of the best throwers in the league.

Dan Dominy and Clyde Masore will combine their efforts to move the Eagle attack.

Rams Roar Back To Nip Falcons

Clashing in their second meeting of a "young traditional" series, the Pleasant Hill Rams prevailed over their neighboring rivals from College Park, 13-7.

Much of the damage to the Falcons' hopes for a first victory on the season were done in by a hard nosed Ram running game.

Leading the way as Pleasant Hill moved for a total of 224 yards on the ground, was all-league halfback, Dave Clark.

Clark personally accounted for 141 yards of the Pleasant Hill total. In addition to this impressive effort, Clark caught all five of the Pleasant Hill pass completions that added up to 83 yards advanced via the airways. And every bit of the effort was needed to subdue a stubborn group of Falcons.

COLLEGE PARK got on the scoreboard first, taking the opening kickoff and marching 60 yards in 11 plays for the score.

Brian Hunt did the scoring honors, bursting through the Rams' defenses from the one-yard marker for the initial score.

Dick Larscheid was the workhorse of the drive. However, the big play came on a pass from Brian Hunt to Al Oldfather that moved to the Pleasant Hill 22-yard line, a gain of 20 yards.

Larscheid converted to make it a 7-0 ballgame.

The Rams, with Clark almost making it a personal issue, bounced back to score in eight plays.

Clark took the kickoff and rambled all the way to the College Park 44-yard line. From this point the Rams tallied in eight plays, the biggest gain being a 22-yard smash over tackle by Clark.

However, the PAT try was stopped and College Park still led, 7-6.

In the second quarter, Pleasant Hill put together a 68-yard scoring drive that consumed 11 plays. Quarterback John Dotson hit Clark with a 32-yard pass for winning tally.

The game marked the end of the season for the College Park Falcons. The Falcons were a tough club defensively, but couldn't get the offense rolling.

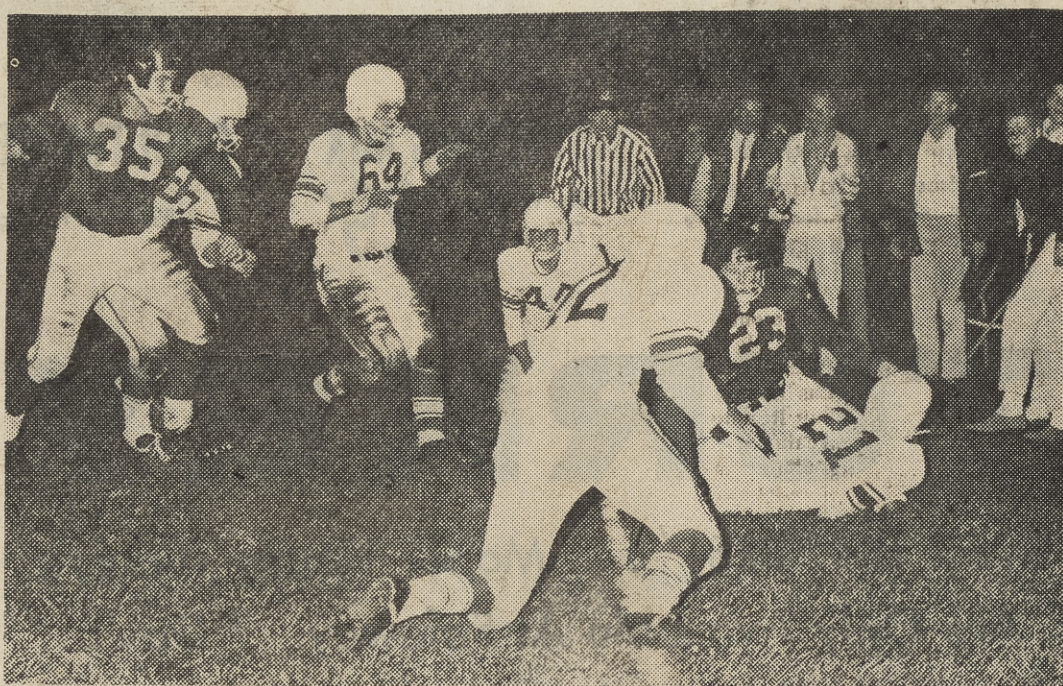

As usual, Tim Ryan, guard, Larscheid, Hunt and Oldfather stood out in their efforts for the Falcon cause.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1962

THIS PLAY might have cost Las Lomas the game last Friday and the second straight Foothill Athletic League football title along with it. Bill O'Toole (21), Del Valle halfback, is shown on top of the football almost a body length out of bounds in this picture. After consulting the linesman, the referee ruled O'Toole had recovered the fumble by Las Lomas quarterback Mike McGinnis (23) in bounds before skidding out of bounds and Del Valle was given the football. If the Knights had retained the ball, it would have been third down and goal to go on the Del Valle three-yard line.

Las Lomas Ends Del Valle's JV Winning Streak

Las Lomas upset Del Valle, 7-6, last Thursday afternoon in JV football.

The loss ended a seven-game winning streak for the junior Trojans and enabled Piedmont to share the top spot in the final Foothill League standings.

Both teams finished with 5-1-0 records in league play. Del Valle had beaten Piedmont, 13-7, the previous week in a battle of unbeaten to take over first place.

The Clan thumped Acalanes, 28-12, to claim a share of the title Thursday.

Las Lomas halfback Don Carlson climaxed a sustained drive late in the first period with a 21-yard end run to paydirt.

Randy Branum then kicked the extra point that was to prove decisive.

THE TROJANS scored in the second period on a short plunge by Steve Huft from one yard out. The scoring play followed a 30-yard pass from quarterback Bruce Black to end Bill Main.

The junior Trojans had numerous scoring opportunities thereafter, but failed to capitalize. Penalties and a tough Las Lomas defense hurt Del Valle at critical times.

Twice in the second half, the junior Knights stopped Del Valle inside the 10—once on fourth down and once at the two and another time on fourth down and two at the six.

Las Lomas ended the season with a 4-2 record.

In other games last week, Miramonte closed out its season on a winning note with a 13-7 win over Alhambra.

The Mats finished with a 3-3-0 record while Alhambra finished 1-5-0.

Mats Set Up Big Game By Defeating Bulldogs

By BILL SMITH

Miramonte meets Piedmont tonight at 8 in a game that will decide the 1962 Foothill League championship.

The Matadors' 19-7 win over Alhambra last week, coupled with Las Lomas' 7-0 defeat at the hands of Del Valle, puts Miramonte in first place by the barest of margins, with one game left to play. Las Lomas has finished its schedule.

The Mats will win, lose, or tie the league championship, depending on whether they win, lose, or tie tonight's game. The game could be rated as a toss-up; Miramonte has had a good season, while Piedmont is bouncing back as a 38-12 victory over Acalanes last week showed.

Last week's game, played on a wet field during a constant drizzle, was clearly one-sided, as Miramonte overpowered the Bulldogs with long passes and runs.

Alhambra quarterback Paul Waite's accurate passing would have been a bigger threat if his receivers had been able to hold onto the wet ball.

NORRIS WIDENER of Miramonte took the opening kickoff of the game on his own 26, and moving up the middle behind a wedge of blockers, found open space all the way to Alhambra's 12 before he was brought down. Five plays later, Dean Hilger jumped over the line for the first score, only 2:25 into the game. Jim Lewis' conversion attempt was blocked.

In the second quarter, the Mats were on Alhambra's 45 after receiving a punt. Rolling out, Rod Robinson fired a long, high pass to Bob Miller, who caught it on the 12 and drove to the two-yard line before he was tackled.

Hilger engineered the score in two plays, moving to the one-yard line, then taking it over on the next play with 3:02 left in the quarter. Lewis PAT made it 13-0.

The Matadors came back in the same period with Lewis intercepting a Waite aerial on Miramonte's 45. On the next play, Pete Boyle broke down the Waite. Spina's PAT was good right sideline, picking up 43 for a final score of 19-7.

yards to the 12, aided by a block from Steve Brush.

With seconds left in the half, Boyle led Steve Cummings perfectly with a pass in the end zone for an apparent score. However, a penalty called back the play, and the half ended with a 13-0 score.

IN THE second half, the Bulldogs went into a radical spread formation, with the team splitting out to both sidelines, leaving the quarterback and center alone in the middle. But Miramonte's line didn't give Waite enough time to pass effectively.

Miramonte launched their third touchdown drive in the third quarter after receiving a punt on Alhambra's 33.

Boyle picked up eight yards around right end, then Bob Williams spurred for eight more to the 17. Two plays later, with the ball on the 12, Williams broke into the end zone with 3:40 left in the period.

The Bulldogs marched to Miramonte's 25 after the kickoff, but lost the ball to the Mats on a fumble recovered by Jack Osborne. The Bulldogs recovered again two plays later, but ran out of downs on Miramonte's five.

The Matadors then moved 80 yards in three plays. Rick Cannon fought for 20 yards to the 25. Boyle picked up 30 yards on a break-away run, then on the next play heaved a long pass to Steve Cummings, who made a difficult catch on the 15.

The pass was called back on after receiving a punt. Rolling out, Rod Robinson fired a long, high pass to Bob Miller, who caught it on the 12 and drove to the two-yard line before he was tackled.

Hilger engineered the score in two plays, moving to the one-yard line, then taking it over on the next play with 3:02 left in the quarter. Lewis PAT made it 13-0.

The Matadors came back in the same period with Lewis intercepting a Waite aerial on Miramonte's 45. On the next play, Pete Boyle broke down the Waite. Spina's PAT was good right sideline, picking up 43 for a final score of 19-7.

DVC Plays Two Games In 5 Days

Diablo Valley College plays its next-to-last game tomorrow night against San Jose City College at Pleasant Hill High School in a Golden Gate Conference game.

DVC plays its final league game Wednesday night, also at Pleasant Hill, against Foothill College, one of the top 20 junior college teams in the national.

The game is a make-up of a game postponed on October 13 by the "big rain."

LAST FRIDAY afternoon, the Vikings dropped their fifth straight league game, 15-6, to San Francisco City College.

It leaves the Vikings with a 0-6-1 record on the season.

San Francisco picked up its two touchdowns on an 80-yard punt return and a 75-yard run from scrimmage.

They also collected a safety in the second period to lead 9-0 at the half.

It was 15-0 going into the final period when DVC finally scored. Jim Rinne, halfback from Acalanes High School, raced 55 yards for the score.

Miramonte Seeks First FAL Football Title Tonight

Mats Are Favored to Win Over Dangerous Piedmont

Tonight's the biggest night of the year for Miramonte High School.

A win would give the Matadors the first football title in the history of the school.

The Mats, who had a hard time winning more than one or two games in a year a couple seasons ago, are 6-1-0 in 1962.

Their Foothill League record is 4-1-0.

Miramonte's only loss in 1962 was an 8-0 defeat at the hand of Las Lomas.

However, tonight's game could have been a big, anti-climactic "nothing" contest if Del Valle hadn't handed Las Lomas its first league loss in two years last Friday night.

A WIN tonight for Miramonte means the undisputed FAL title; a tie means a deadlock for the top with Las Lomas and a loss means a second place deadlock with San Ramon and Del Valle.

Piedmont has been on and off this season, but the Clan was really "on" against Acalanes last week.

It is conceivable that Las Lomas could collect its second straight FAL title tonight by doing nothing but watching.

The Sun's staff, which has seemed to miss on all the "big games" this year, is picking Miramonte, 5-0. Last week, the consensus was right on nine of 10 games—only missing the "big game" between Las Lomas and Del Valle.

The Mats should be playing the game tonight as if their lives depended on it—there is everything to gain. However, The Sun sports staff sees a very tight game all the way.

IN THE OTHER high school games tonight, Pleasant Hill, Pacifica and Antioch are favored as the Contra Costa Division closes out its season.

In college and pro games this weekend, only San Francisco State and Stanford are favored. As usual, Cal, the Raiders and 49ers are picked to come out on the short end.

Sports Editor George Colburn, who has incorrectly picked the New York Giants to lose the past two weeks, this week sees John Unitas and the Baltimore Colts stopping the Green Bay express, 27-24, as his "wild card" selection.

THE CONSENSUS (61-22-5)

choices for this week's top high school, college and pro games:

Miramonte over Piedmont (5-0)—A first title for the Matadors.

Pleasant Hill over Mt. Diablo (4-1)—A great finish for the Rams.

Pacifica over Clayton Valley (5-0)—A rough year for the Eagles.

Antioch over Pittsburg (5-0)—A CCD title for the Panthers.

San Jose CC over DVC (5-0)—The Vikings are lacking in several departments.

San Francisco State over Chico State (5-0)—A successful homecoming.

Stanford over San Jose State (5-0)—Jack needs every win he can get.

Kansas over Cal (4-1)—It's too bad Bears aren't playing at home.

Buffalo over Raiders (5-0)—The Bills have been "hot" lately.

L.A. over 49ers (3-2)—Are Red and John on the way out?

COLBURN (61-30-6)—Miramonte over Piedmont, 14-12; Pleasant Hill over Mt. Diablo, 20-14; Pacifica over Clayton Valley, 13-6; Antioch over Pittsburg, 20-6; San Jose CC over DVC, 19-6; San Francisco State over Chico State, 13-0; Stanford over San Jose State, 17-6; Kansas over Cal, 27-8; Buffalo over Raiders, 35-14; 49ers over L.A., 21-17.

Thunderbirds Need Win to Finish 2nd

LaMorinda Thunderbirds eye second place in the East Bay Pop Warner League Sunday as they travel to Pittsburg for their final game of the season.

The Thunderbirds, 5-1-0, must win over the Mallards to nail down the runner-up spot. The steel city squad is 6-1-0 after suffering their first loss in two years, 13-6, to Oakland last Sunday.

West Contra Costa, 30-6 victor over LaMorinda two weeks ago, needs only a win over hapless Livermore tomorrow night to capture the title.

The Rockets from San Pablo finished behind Pittsburg last year, losing only to the Mallards. The Thunderbirds finished third last year, losing to West Contra Costa and Pittsburg.

Game time is 1:30 p.m. at the Pittsburg High School field.

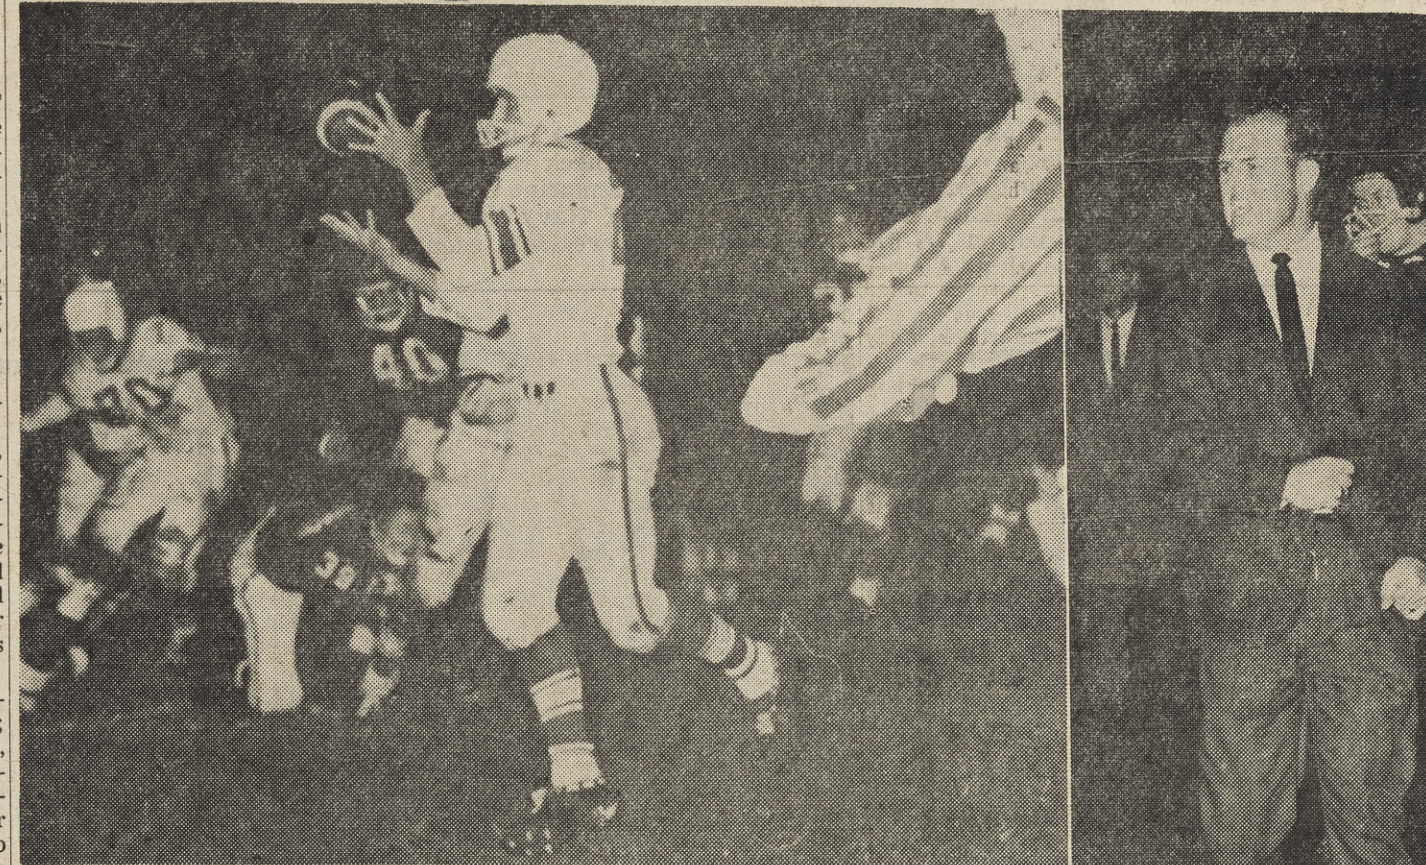

Last Sunday, the Thunderbirds' regularly scheduled game against Martinez was canceled when the coach's son, a member of the team, was killed in a hunting mishap.

The game will be broadcast over K-WUN (1480) direct from Pittsburg.

The Big Moments ...

THE BEGINNING of an 84-yard pass and run play—and the end of Las Lomas last Friday night. Bill O'Toole, Del Valle halfback, is about to haul in a soft, four-yard pass from quarterback Bob Kovats in the second quarter deep in his own territory. O'Toole outstepped four Las Lomas defenders before finding running room—then he turned on the speed to score easily. Las Lomas coach Duane Louis knows his team has come to the end of the line and his expression shows it as a fourth down pass is batted down in the last minutes of the game—with the Knights on Del Valle's 10-yard line.

Trojans Upset Knights

By ROGER JERNIGAN

The Del Valle Trojans, led by Bill O'Toole, dashed the hopes of Las Lomas to repeat as Foothill League champions by defeating same in a grueling 7-0 victory before an overflow crowd at the Knights' field Friday night.

O'Toole raced 84 yards after taking a short pass from Bob Kovats in the second period for the only score in a tight defensive battle.

The total yardage for both teams in the contest gave the Knights a slight 154 to 150 advantage. Although Las Lomas out-gained the Trojans 146 yards rushing to 63, Del Valle quarterback Kovats made the difference with his fine passing for 87 yards to the Knights' eight yards.

The Trojan defensive unit stymied the Knights twice deep within their own territory. Both lines played a tremendous game which could have gone either way at any time.

The Knight line was led by Steve Alexakos, Dave and Dan Colwell, Bill Staley, Rick Laven, and Otto Shtaz. Trojan standouts were Jim Christman, Max Christiansen, and Bill James.

LAS LOMAS posed the first threat in the game. Kovats punted to his own 45 and Bob Kreider ripped over left guard for five yards on first down.

On the next play Kreider smashed up the middle, found running room, broke to the near sidelines and scampered to the Trojan 10.

Two plays later quarterback Mike McGinnis swept to the left and cut in to the three-yard-line where a jarring tackle knocked the ball into the hands of O'Toole, ending the threat.

After a series of downs, Kovats punted off the side of his foot to the 24 and Las Lomas had another chance to move the ball in for the score.

Kreider circled left end for seven, but the Trojans held and took over on the 16. On the first play, Kovats lobbed a four-yard pass to O'Toole slicing to the outside after a fine block by Christiansen.

After shaking off four would-be tacklers, O'Toole roared to the far sidelines at the 40 and from then on literally flew past the pursuing Knight backs for an 84-yard touchdown gallop that eventually gave Del Valle the upset victory.

Kovats fired a pass to Christiansen in the end zone for the PAT and a 7-0 halftime advantage over the Knights.

EARLY IN THE third quarter the Knights came back to threaten once more.

McGinnis fired a pass from a punt formation that barely skipped off the fingertips of Kreider at the Trojan 25. A few plays later, McGinnis intercepted a Kovats aerial on his own 26, but Christman recovered a fumble on the same stripe to give Del Valle possession again.

A little later, pass interference gave the Trojans the pigskin at the Knight eight, but a hard-driving defensive line pushed them back and took over the ball on the 24.

Las Lomas then marched all the way to the Trojan five for its final scoring bid later in the final quarter.

McGinnis ran for a first down on the roll-out option, passed to Gary Ford to the 45, Brian Nissen gained 15 yards on two runs, and a 15-yard penalty gave the Knights a first down on the 12-yard line.

Once again the Trojan line rose to the occasion and stopped the driving Knights. McGinnis hit Ford on the five, then overthrew two receivers to bring about a do-or-die fourth down situation.

Kreider took a screen pass behind the line of scrimmage, spotted Jon Phillips all by himself in the end zone, but a hard-charging Bill James batted the ball away just as he fired it.

Del Valle took over and moved upfield to run out the clock and preserve the victory.

The win tied the Trojans with San Ramon for third place in the Foothill Athletic League and gave Miramonte a good chance to take the championship. The Matadors have to defeat the Piedmont Highlanders tonight for the title.

Mrs. Bogue and Mrs. Eckles Win At Tilden Park

Mrs. L. N. Bogue shot an 89-19 to take top Class A honors in the Medal Sweepstakes for the Tilden Park women golfers last week.

Mrs. Fred Pera (87-15-72) and Mrs. L. Tinker (91-19-72) tied for second.

In Class B, Mrs. N. Eckles was the winner with a 102-31-71.

Mrs. George Chalmers finished second with a 98-23-75.

Mrs. Tinker, Mrs. R. W. Arns and Mrs. Chalmers tied for low putt honors, all with 30.

'Most Satisfying Win'—Del Valle Coach Bellon

By DAVE ANDERSON

"This definitely has to be our most satisfying win," was the way Coach Jerry Bellon of the Del Valle Trojans summed up their victory over the Las Lomas Knights.

The Trojans played the role of spoiler to perfection as they derailed the Knights' championship drive with a 7-0 victory last Friday night.

Bellon thought that the Trojans played one of their best games, both offensively and defensively. Although the Trojans, with their explosive offense, were only able to score once against the Knights, much of the credit for this must go to the Las Lomas interior line, one of the best in the league.

The Trojan mentor did feel that one of the vital factors of the game was the numerous exchange of punts. "The punting really kept us in the hole; it hurt when one of our punts went for only 20 yards out to our 30-yard line."

DEL VALLE has no kicking specialist, so quarterback Bob Kovats assumes kicking duties. Las Lomas was unable to take advantage of the punting, however, as both of their strong scoring threats were mounted from their own territory.

Attesting to the stout defense the Trojans threw up near the goal line, and on several occasions at midfield, Bellon said that the fact that "we outplayed them on defense enabled us to win." He was proud of the entire team effort; he felt that everyone played a good solid game.

Bellon was especially high in his praise of the defense of Max Christiansen and Pete Jason, playing out their last game of Del Valle football, and of Jim Christman and Ken Roberts. On offense, it was Bill O'Toole again with that one 84-yard pass and run play that split the game wide open.

Win Over Tough Scots Is a 'Must' for Crown

By HEC HANCOCK

With the winner of the 1962 Foothill Athletic League race to be decided on the outcome, the Piedmont Scots and the Miramonte Matadors will vie this evening on the Highlanders' turf in a contest rescheduled to this date as a result of the "Big Rain" of last month.

A victory by the Matadors would enable Miramonte to claim their first ever FAL championship.

Should Piedmont upset the Miramonte title express, the Las Lomas Knights would be declared the FAL champ for the second consecutive year.

In the unlikely event of a tie, Miramonte and Las Lomas would have to be content to rule the FAL as co-champs.

THE GAME had originally been slated for October 12. However, the storm of that week-end washed out the entire FAL schedule of games.

Other games affected were played the following Monday in accordance to league rules.

The same storm closed the Broadway tunnel making travel between the two communities most difficult. A poll of principals of the eight member schools came up with the unanimous verdict to replay the game a week after the close of the regular season.

Foothill League

	W	L	T	PS	PA
Miramonte	4	1	0	65	42
Las Lomas	4	1	1	61	27
San Ramon	4	2	0	99	69
Del Valle	4	2	0	80	51
Piedmont	2	3	0	81	59
Acalanes	1	4	1	56	82
Alhambra	0	6	0	32	134

Thus the principals, with their usual fine foresight, had averted what would have become a controversial situation.

Had the game not been played, there would have been a storm of protests from the Las Lomas followers, where Miramonte would have been declared the league winner last week.

Now each team will have played the same number of league contests.

Miramonte will come into tonight's game riding on a victory surge that saw them win their last two games.

FULLBACK Dean Hilger and halfback Bob Williams have spearheaded the Mat attack in the last two games, much the same as they have all year long.

To supplement these two which have carried the brunt of the ground game, Rod Robinson showed the Mats can pass when he teamed up with Kent Miller for a 36-yard pass play against Alhambra.

Vallejo Bumps PH, 25-0, in Pop Warner

Pleasant Hill's Rebels dropped their fourth Pop Warner league game in seven outings, 25-0, to Vallejo last Sunday afternoon.

After a scoreless first quarter, the home-standing Dons got on the scoreboard when Eddie Cohen, fullback, scored the first of his two touchdowns from 19 yards out.

Vallejo added another touchdown in the third period for a 12-0 lead before taking advantage of two intercepted passes to turn the game into a rout in the final stanza.

The outstanding Rebel player, as usual, was halfback Mike Mossman who sparked on both offense and defense.

Monte Watson, on offense, and Bill Muncey, on defense, also played fine games for the Rebels in a losing cause.

Games Tonight

Miramonte at Piedmont.*
Pleasant Hill at Mt. Diablo.**
(Games at 8 p.m.)
*Foothill League.
**Contra Costa Division.

The Matador front wall has been superb throughout the season.

Zutch Workman, Clint DeWitt, Paul Kooyman, Bruce Nickerson and Kent Miller have combined to make life for from pleasant for their opponents.

The Mats also have fullback Jim Lewis going for them.

Lewis has demonstrated that he is one of the most effective place kickers in the local prep ranks. In the event of a close game this evening his accurate toe could well prove the difference.

AFTER suffering through a frustrating season which saw them lose several close contests, the Piedmont offense exploded for six touchdowns last week against the defensive-minded Acalanes Dons.

Quarterback Steve Lawyer and fullback Jay Knowland who scored two touchdowns each, will endeavor to keep the Scot attack going for one last effort.

Assisting them in this cause is Tom Williamson, a dangerous threat at halfback, capable of the big gain at any time.

The Scots have been able to move the ball throughout the year. Their offensive line has been able to open up the running lanes for their backs to move through for good yardage.

HOWEVER, while the Scots have been able to move, their problem has been that their opponents have also been able to move.

If Piedmont is to close out what has been, for them, a frustrating season, with a win, they are going to have to close ranks up front.

The Scots, with triumphs over only Alhambra and Acalanes, would like nothing better than to bring their season mark up to the .500 position.

In assuming the role of spoiler, they would salvage some of the promise they had demonstrated in their pre-league play.

Clan, Alhambra Tie for Frosh Football Title

Alhambra and Piedmont tied for the frosh football title in the Foothill Athletic League with 6-1-0 records.

Both teams won their final games last Thursday—Alhambra over Miramonte, 20-0, and Piedmont over Acalanes, 26-6.

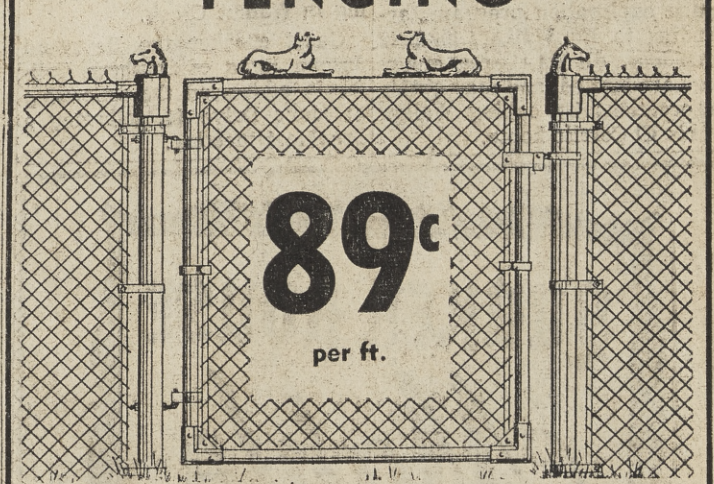

In the other two final games, San Ramon routed winless Campolindo, 32-6, and Del Valle upset Las Lomas, 7-0.

Bill Boyd, the outstanding Alhambra player of the year, scored his 15th touchdown against Miramonte to lead all teams in that department.

'Inherit the Wind' Will Open at Town Hall Tonite

The Dramateurs' first production of their 1962-63 season will open at 8:30 tonight at Lafayette Town Hall.

From the Scopes "Monkey" Trial of 1925, Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee have taken dramatic license and written "Inherit the Wind."

The events of the play concern the townspeople of Hillsboro, who fall behind the oratorical splendor of nationally famous Mathew Harrison Brady. He is the prosecuting attorney facing Henry Drummond at the defense of the local school teacher who innocently was teaching Darwin's theory of Evolution.

The director is Carl Rasmussen. Technical director is John Whitcombe of Orinda.

The two-scene set was designed by Joan Drott of Pleasant Hill. The cast of over 25 come mostly from the surrounding area: Concord, Walnut Creek, Orinda, Lafayette and Pleasant Hill.

Also in the cast is "Junior," a member of the Simian Society of America.

The regular run will be Friday and Saturday night, November 16 through December 15. Curtain time is 8:30.

There will be additional performances on Sunday, December 2 and December 9 at 7:30.

Ticket reservations may be made by phoning 254-4419.

'Death Row Chaplain' To Speak

The chaplain at San Quentin and author of a best-seller, Rev. Byron Eshelman, will speak at Orinda Community Church, 10 Irwin Way, Orinda, Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The current issue of Reader's Digest carries an excerpt from Eshelman's book, "Death Row Chaplain."

THE BOOK is an eye-witness account of life on death row, executions of the condemned and a searching analysis of capital punishment.

The title of Eshelman's talk will be "A Christian's View of Capital Punishment."

While studying at a seminary "temporarily" to save money for law school, Eshelman came to realize the many dimensions of theology. He saw how psychology and the other sciences enriched it for daily pastoral work.

SEVERAL BRIEF touches with prison work during his training convinced him that there was a rich field for his ministerial talents.

He has served as chaplain at Alcatraz and has been at San Quentin for the past 10 years.

The public is invited.

Engineers Plan Space Program Talk

Bradford A. Evans of the Ames Research Center will address the Contra Costa chapter of the California Society of Professional Engineers Tuesday. He will speak at Kirby's Restaurant in El Cerrito on the United States space exploration program, according to Ed Walker, chapter president. All Bay Area engineers are invited, and may obtain reservations by calling Walker at his El Cerrito home.

CHP Warns of Fog Hazards

With one of winter's "most treacherous driving hazards"—fog—now confronting motorists almost daily, Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden offered several tips on fog driving.

"Always use the low headlight beam. The high beam reflects off water droplets and can blind you. Never use parking lights; they not only are ineffective but are illegal to use as driving lights. Even if visibility appears adequate without headlights, turn them on. It will help the other driver see you."

"Increase your following distance. A sudden slowdown ahead then won't find you short of room to stop."

"Decrease your speed. You won't be overdriving your visibility range."

"Be alert for side traffic. A car entering from a side road is not readily apparent," the commissioner concluded.

Dairymen Will Meet at Tracy

Contra Costa dairymen will attend the American Dairy Association of California annual meeting Monday at the Tracy Inn in Tracy.

Gordon B. Reuhl, manager of the association, will speak on the growth of the organization, state and national activities, and the challenges facing dairymen today, according to the association's Ted Shields.

Ministers Meet, Hear Rev. Ryan

The Evangelical Ministerial Fellowship met yesterday morning in Walnut Creek.

Guest speaker the Reverend Joseph Ryan of Southern California addressed the fellowship at Mel's Drive In, following a breakfast meeting.

Edward Teller Will Address Dental Society

Dr. Edward Teller, major contributor to the development of nuclear explosives for military weapons and peace-time tools, will address the Contra Costa Dental Society and Auxiliary Tuesday at Concord Inn.

Dr. Teller, associate director of the Lawrence Radiation Laboratory and professor of physics at large at the University of California, is a noted proponent of controlled nuclear weapons testing.

He will speak to the society on "Radiation Hazard," following dinner at 7:30 p.m.

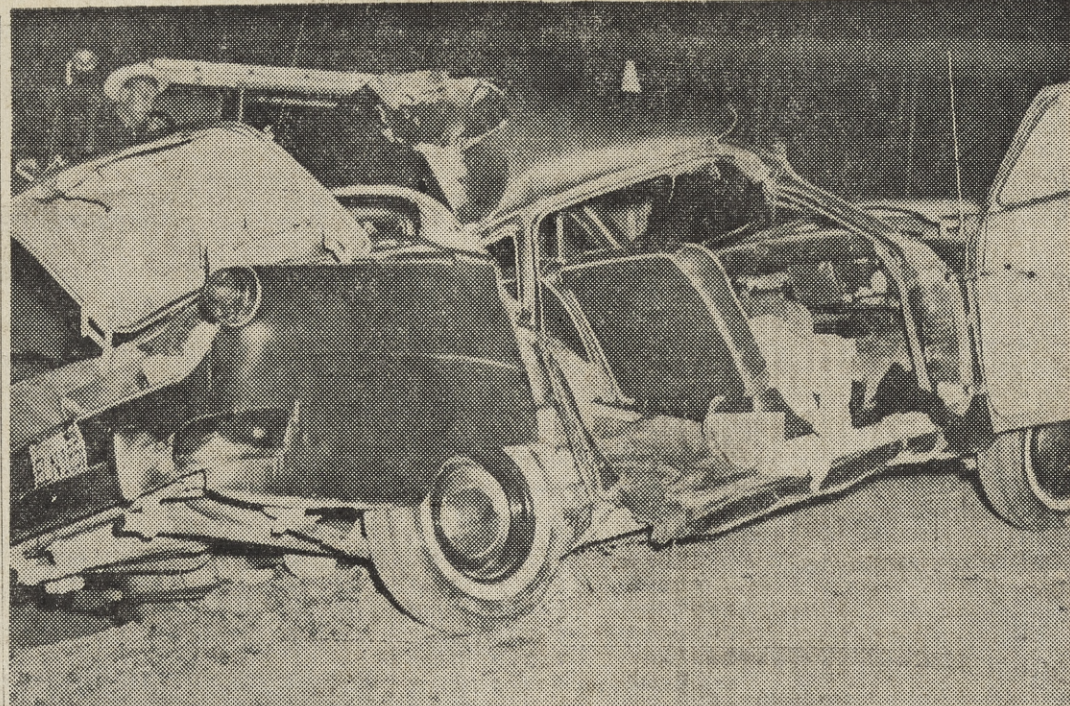

Members and invited guests of the society are welcome. A regular business meeting will follow Dr. Teller's address.

SPCA Elects New Officers Tonight

Election of new officers will be conducted by the Contra Costa Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at their board meeting tonight at 8 p.m. in the Richmond Library Auditorium.

COMMANDER Royce A. McCalley of 39 Kingston Place, Walnut Creek, makes a final check with his crew before taking off on an anti-submarine training mission. McCalley is skipper of Navy patrol squadron VS 874, which trains one weekend each month at Alameda.

SIX-MILE CHASE involving five Highway Patrol cars ended in a crash last Friday that sent a 15-year-old Lafayette boy to the County Hospital. The pursuit began at Rheem Boulevard near Mraga Road, Orinda. It ended in Lafayette on Upper Happy Valley Road near Mt. Diablo Boulevard—with the boy's mother's car wrapped around a power pole. Released this week from the hospital, he will be charged with reckless driving, according to CHP.

Co-op's Cook Book Offers Great Variety

"Co-op 25th Anniversary Menu Book," published by the Consumers Cooperative and printed by Gillick ($1.95), contains 25 complete dinner menus—plus "one to grow on" for teen-agers.

It was assembled by an editorial committee of 10 women Co-op members from Bay Area communities. It is also a membership project, highlighting the organization's many activities. The project, initiated a year ago, brought forth a great variety of recipes from among the Co-op's 25,000 local member-families.

Mrs. Richard Bucci of Walnut Creek is one of the editors. Describing a Mexican dinner, she says that "the most startling item is the peanut soup, but cast aside your prejudice about peanut butter and be prepared to exclaim!"

Executive Committee Formed by 'Broadway'

To coordinate the diverse growing center.

On the board are Carl Putz from J. C. Penney's, Smiths Bill Schotz, John Tague of Capwell's, Lucille Gates, recently appointed manager of Goldman's and Mervin Peacock of Sloane's.

Other board members are Lou Rapport from Klad-e-zee, Grodin's George Webster, Gertrude Stinnett of Stinnett's Pastry Shop, Elsie Crosetti of Crosetti's, P. Temple of Woolworth's and Margaret Straub, just appointed store manager of Joseph Magnin's.

"Our growth pattern, coupled with the large number of promotions that Broadway conducts, called for increased and more representative guidance," he explained.

Howard said that he was particularly pleased that the board included his immediate predecessor as chairman, Sears' B. K. Horne.

"Horne's ability and experience in coordinating several successful Broadway promotions will stand us in good stead," the new chairman said.

The new board includes representatives from many types of the diverse businesses in the

New Class Is Added by Art Center

Due to an overwhelming demand for children's art classes, the Orinda Art Center is now sponsoring a third class for children from the second to fifth grades. The new class is at the Del Rey multipurpose room on Fridays at 3:15 p.m.

The instructor is Mollie Popeney, who also teaches at the Glorietta School. For further information, call Mrs. Cyclos Dunsmoor, 254-0676 or Mrs. James Wasley, 254-2811.

Broadway Names Matt Howard Head of Assoc.

Matt Howard, district supervisor of Anita Shops in the central county area, has been named chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association.

Howard takes over leadership of the merchants organization from Sear's B. K. Horne.

Known throughout the Bay Area for successful promotions and colorful store decoration, Howard is a charter member of the Diablo Valley Lions Club and an active Shriner.

He lives with his wife Cecilia and their 16-year-old daughter Lanna at 2013 Hermione Avenue in Walnut Creek.

Two other daughters, Jean and Derryl, are married and reside in Concord and Los Angeles, respectively.

Eileen Hanson Files Appeal Of Conviction

Mrs. Eileen Hanson, operator of Stag Manor School in Danville, has appealed her conviction of mistreatment of mentally retarded children.

Her appeal, filed in Superior Court in Martinez, contests her October 11 conviction in the Walnut Creek Municipal Court of Judge Betsy Fitzgerald Rahn.

No basis for the appeal was stated in the preliminary notice, but attorneys are required to file statements by Monday, according to local court personnel.

Fulfillment of the appeal proceedings requires obtaining the transcript of the trial, said to be the longest municipal court jury trial in county history.

Mrs. Hanson has also substituted attorneys.

Defended by Attorney Thomas McBride during the trial, she is now represented by Robert B. Dunivan, Dunivan and Byers of Hayward and Thomas Schneider of Oakland.

At sentencing subsequent to the October 11 conviction, Mrs. Hanson was fined $525 and placed on three years probation.

Her son-in-law, Ronald Hicks, co-defendant in the trial, is not mentioned in the appeal.

He was fined $52.50 and placed on one year probation by Judge Rahn on October 11.

Population Expansion Is Symposium Topic

The economics of growth as influenced by the population expansion will be the concern of more than 200 business and industrial leaders at the sixth St. Mary's College Executives Symposium on the Moraga campus January 30 and 31.

The announcement of the theme, "The Economics of Growth: An Overview of the Population Expansion," was announced by Ralph Larson, president of the Morris Plan Company of California and chairman of the symposium steering committee.

Larson also announced that the steering committee has named Bill Lane, president and publisher of Lane publications, general chairman of the event.

The symposium will be one of the major events of the St. Mary's College Centennial program.

IN HIS announcement of the theme, Larson stated, "In view of the fact that California will become the largest state about the time of the symposium, the steering committee chose the theme of the population expansion because of its timely significance here and because of its vital interest both nationally and internationally."

Members of the steering committee are:

Stanley E. McCaffrey, president, San Francisco Bay Area Council, Inc.; Albert E. Schwabacher, Jr., partner, Schwabacher and Company; Wayne E. Thompson, city manager, City of Oakland; Benjamin A. Frankel, associate professor of history, St. Mary's College; Brother Xavier, F.S.C., vice-president for Development, St. Mary's College; Richard Paule-tich, coordinator of Development, St. Mary's College; Seymour Farber, M.D., assistant dean of Continuing Education in Medicine and Health Science, University of California Medical Center.

General chairman of the centennial program is James D. Zellerbach.

The wise man is he who knows the relative value of things.

—William Ralph Inge

What Is Small, Black, and Needs The Sun?

Several very small black registered miniature poodles were sold by E. Askrol, 1501 Center Drive, Martinez, with a single Sun want ad.

Mary L. Lynn, 3485 Moraga Boulevard, Lafayette, got speedy one-Sun-ad results when she rented a 3-room rear apartment with carport and partially furnished.

Barry Behm, 1077 Leland Drive, Lafayette, sold his stick-shift two-door Pontiac sedan with only one want ad in The Sun.

These are only three of the "success stories" Sun want ad writers hear of every day. They are reported so frequently and on such diverse items largely because of the five-in-one pulling power of The Sun classified section. A single want ad placed in The Sun appears in the 58,000-circulation Sun Shopping News and in the four Sun subscription newspapers, The Orinda Sun, The Walnut Creek Sun, The Lafayette Sun and The Pleasant Hill Sun.

A 14-word ad costs only $1.60, and even less for multiple runs. Call a Sun ad writer at 934-5000 or 284-4444. There are more "success stories" where these came from. Yours may be one of them!

Meet Ruth Petracek—this week on Newell Strip

Just back from the New York Spring Bridal Market, Ruth and Ed Petracek are happy to announce they have secured an exclusive for this area on BIANCHI, one of the finest names in bridal dresses. With dresses by Miss Betsy, Alfred Angelo and Portrait, this gives them the area's largest selection of styles for BRIDES, priced from 39.95 to 369.95. You may walk right into a dress or order from samples. Their alteration department makes every dress custom fitted.

BRIDES 'N BELLES also feature bridesmaids dresses by Bianchi, Lorrie Deb, Emma Domb and Priscilla of Boston and lovely dresses for the mother of the bride.

For the BELLES there are party dresses, short and long formals, and cocktail dresses, so fetching we suspect Ruth is scheming for future bridal business.

Long an expert on fashion, Ruth was a newspaper and radio fashion commentator in Santa Ana and had a bridal shop in Hayward before she opened BRIDES 'N BELLES on the Newell Strip, eight months ago.

Ed has a full time job as a Commander in the Air National Guard. They have four children, Mike, 18, Stephen, 13, Elizabeth Anne, 10, and Gregory, 7.

Whether you just have an important date or you have set THE important date, come in soon and meet Ruth Petracek.

TOMORROW NEVER COMES

PHONE US TODAY ABOUT LISTING YOUR PROPERTY FOR SALE!

WE SAY WHAT WE'LL DO!

We tell you in advance what price you can expect to get. We don't name an "extra-fancy" price just to get your listing and hope that you'll come down afterwards. We don't promise the moon and later deliver only a handful of stardust. We come down to "brass tacks" right away, and when we say we'll get you $15,000 you can bank on it. It'll be a cold day in July when we tell you $20,000 for a $15,000 home just to get the listing!

WE DO WHAT WE SAY!

Put a "proper price" on your home... that's the way to sell it quickly. Ask for TOO MUCH and you frighten people away! Ask for TOO LITTLE and before you know it, it's been grabbed off by someone who re-sells it later for a big profit. There's no... SUBSTITUTE FOR EXPERIENCE in selling Real Estate. We know the questions and answers that arise in the sale of property. This knowledge is at your disposal.

Four Girls Compete for Year Abroad

Suzie Burks, Nancy Dixon, Peggy Koch and Cynthia Schultz have been chosen American Field Service finalists at San Ramon Valley High School.

The young candidates for a year of education abroad were selected from a field of 13 semi-finalists, according to San Ramon AFS club advisor Elizabeth Beresford.

The four, whose names have been forwarded to the service's headquarters in New York, will be screened, and two will be chosen as "eventual foreign exchange candidates," Miss Beresford said.

Selection of the students was based on their understanding, initiative, intelligence, maturity, responsibility and adaptability, the advisor pointed out.

Last year, San Ramon High's Doug McKinley, 1962 graduate, was selected for the AFS summer program. He spent two months in Rio de Janeiro.

The freshmen's weekend retreat, was at Camp Lutherhaven on Lake Coeur d'Alene, Wash.

Each year, new students with high leadership potential are chosen by a vote of their living groups and sent with the faculty members for three days of discussion, recreation and fellowship.

Divided into groups of eight students and two faculty members, the units discuss the first month of school activities at WSU and the things that have appeared important to the new students.

John R. Martin Enters NROTC

John R. Martin was recently accepted into the Contract NROTC program at the University of Idaho.

Martin is majoring in pre-med at the university. He is the son of Mrs. Edward Martin, 8 El Sereno Road, Orinda. Formerly, he worked under Kevin Marrick, tennis pro, at the Orinda Country Club.

Upon completion of degree requirements, he will be commissioned and join the officer corps of the navy or marine corps for active duty.

New Bobcats Named

Cub Pack 243 added six new boys to its ranks at its first monthly meeting of the season at Parkmead School. Four were new Bobcats and two were transfers.

The four new members are: John Ware, Buddy Brumback, Grant Winslow and William Starnes.

The boys transferring into the pack are Glen Fee and Gary Starnes.

Joyce Huff In 'Who's Who'

Joyce Diane Huff, daughter of Mrs. Charles C. Huff, 2175 Whyte Park Avenue, Walnut Creek, has been selected to appear in the 1962-63 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

A senior at Bob Jones University, Greenville, South Carolina, Miss Huff is one of 32 students who were chosen from the university student body this year on the basis of academic standing campus leadership.

Lynn Hendrix Joins Prytanean

Lynn Hendrix of Walnut Creek was recently initiated into the Davis chapter of the Prytanean Society, upper-division women's honorary group of the University of California.

State Capital Visited by Cubs

Taking advantage of a "free day" October 24, Den 5 of Pack 52, Orinda, journeyed to Sacramento for an educational tour of the capitol and other points of interest.

The sergeant-at-arms gave the boys a complete tour of the capitol, explaining its functions and activities.

After lunch in the capitol cafeteria, the lads relived pioneer days exploring Sutter's Fort.

The outing was under the supervision of den mother, Mrs. Ruth Blankenship, assisted by Mrs. Jackie Raaka, Mrs. June Forner, Mrs. Betty Joiner and Mrs. Margie Nichol.

Members of Den 5 making the trip were: John Blankenship, Mike Forner, Josh Nichol, John Holmgren, Mark Joiner, Andy Raaka and Fred Young.

DEADLINE FOR CLASSIFIED OVER THANKSGIVING DAY SET

Because of the Thanksgiving Day holiday, the deadline for classified ads in the Sun has been moved up to Saturday, November 17, 5 p.m.

Classified ads may be placed all day on Saturday, November 17, by calling 934-5000 or 284-4444.

Any ads called in on Monday, November 19, will go in "too late to classify." These ads will be taken up till 10 a.m.

...is clean, comfortable, quiet!

With radiant ceiling or baseboard electric heat you are always comfortable... never too hot... never too cold. It's quiet and it's clean. There is no noisy turning on and off to distract or disturb. No hot air blows at you, and there's no odor or soil. Grime on windows, walls, mirrors is a thing of the past with flameless electric heat. You have individual room thermostats which are convenient and economical. Electric house heating does away with waste. Needing no chimney, this method-of-the-future wastes no warmth. You pay only for the heat you use... not for what goes up the flue. Get an accurate estimate from your qualified electrical contractor today! We think you have a pleasant surprise coming.
